SECTION 5 OF THE PRINCIPAL ACT WHICH IT IS PROPOSED TO AMEND

5. The objects of this Act are to—
   (a) maximise economy and efficiency in public procurement;
   (g) promote competition among suppliers and approved unregistered suppliers for the supply of goods, works and services;
   (i) encourage national growth by enabling the participation of small and medium sized enterprises in public procurement.

7.—(1) The Office shall be responsible for the development of public procurement policy, providing policy implementation guidance, training and advice to persons participating in public procurement, and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, the Office shall—
   (a) monitor the operation of the public procurement process and compliance with the provisions of this Act and regulations made hereunder;
   (c) from time to time, issue administrative guidance, in any form, including directives, guidelines, instructions, technical notes or manuals, with respect to the conduct of public procurement and the implementation of this Act and regulations;
   (m) present an annual report to the Minister regarding the functioning of the public procurement system;
   (n) perform such other functions relating to public procurement as may be assigned to it by the Financial Secretary.

SECTION 11 OF THE PRINCIPAL ACT WHICH IT IS PROPOSED TO AMEND

11.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Commission shall—
   (a) promote and facilitate the attainment of the objects specified in section 10;
(c) register classify persons, firms or entities as suppliers and approve persons, firms or entities as approved unregistered suppliers for the purpose of this Act;

(d) continuously assess suppliers for capacity and performance consistent with registration and classification requirements under the Act;

(e) establish and maintain register of suppliers, differentiated according to classification;

SECTIONS 15 and 16 OF THE PRINCIPAL ACT WHICH IT IS PROPOSED TO AMEND

15.—(1) Subject to subsection (3), a person, firm or entity shall not present bids or otherwise participate in public procurement unless that person, firm or entity is—

(a) registered as a supplier under section 16; or

16.—(1) Any person, firm or entity desirous of being registered as a supplier and classified for the purposes of participating in public procurement under this Act may apply to the Commission in the prescribed form and manner.

(2) If the Commission is satisfied that an applicant meets the requirements prescribed by the Commission under section 61, it may register and classify the applicant as a supplier.

SECTION 18 OF THE PRINCIPAL ACT WHICH IT IS PROPOSED TO AMEND

18.—(1) ... ... ...

(2) Subject to subsection (1), a procuring entity that is desirous of inviting or receiving bids from or otherwise engaging or participating in the public procurement with a person, firm or entity that is not a supplier shall apply to the Commission, in writing, for the Commission’s written approval to do so.

SECTIONS 20 AND 21 OF THE PRINCIPAL ACT WHICH IT IS PROPOSED TO AMEND

20. The head of every procuring entity shall have overall responsibility for the conduct of all processes connected with procurement for that entity and, in particular, shall—

(a) develop an annual procurement plan for the procuring entity;
21.—(1) ...

(2) The operations of procurement committees established under subsection (1) shall be managed by procuring entities in accordance with the administrative guidance issued by the Office under section 7(1)(c).

23.—(1) ...

(5) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law to the contrary, the participation of a national bidder in international competitive bidding shall not be required, to be on the same basis as that of a foreign bidder and a national bidder shall not, as a condition for participation, be required to take any action or observe any procedure or formality that is not required of a foreign bidder.

(6) Where participation is limited as permitted under subsection (4), the limitation shall be stated in the invitation to bid or to pre-qualify, as the case may be, and shall be otherwise in accordance with such provisions as may be prescribed.

(7) The regulations may prescribe the procedures for open bidding and make other provision in relation thereto.

24.—(1) ...

(2) Where a procuring entity engages in procurement by means of restricted bidding—

(a) in the circumstances referred to in subsection (1)(a), then it shall invite all known suppliers who are capable of supplying the goods, works or services, as the case may be, to bid;

...

25.—(1) A procuring entity may, in accordance with the prescribed procedures and subject to subsection (2), engage in single-source procurement only where—

(a) the goods, works or services to be procured are available from a particular supplier or approved unregistered supplier only, or a particular supplier has exclusive rights in respect of such goods, works or services, such that no reasonable alternative or substitute exists, and the use of any other method of procurement would not be practicable;

(c) the procuring entity determines that the use of any other method of procurement is not appropriate for the protection of the national security or defence interests of Jamaica; or
(d) the situation is one of emergency or extreme urgency and the engaging in any other method of procurement would be impractical because of the time involved in using any such other method.

... ... ...

(3) Where a procuring entity engages in single-source procurement, it shall invite a proposal or price quotation from a single supplier or approved unregistered supplier.

(4) A procuring entity shall engage in negotiations with the supplier or approved unregistered supplier from which a proposal or price quotation is invited, unless negotiations are not feasible in the circumstances of the procurement concerned.

SECTIONS 31 AND 32 OF THE PRINCIPAL ACT WHICH IT IS PROPOSED TO AMEND

31.—(1) A person, firm or entity shall be permitted to participate in procurement proceedings without regard to nationality, except where the procuring entity decides to limit participation in procurement proceedings on the basis of nationality on the ground specified in section 23(4).

... ... ...

(3) A procuring entity shall, when first inviting participation in procurement proceedings, declare in the invitation to pre-qualify (where applicable) or the invitation to bid, whether the participation in the procurement proceedings is limited in the matter referred to in subsection (1), and any such declaration may not later be altered.

32. A person, firm, or entity shall, in order to be eligible to participate in the public procurement process, meet such qualification requirements as may be prescribed.

SECTION 38 OF THE PRINCIPAL ACT WHICH IT IS PROPOSED TO AMEND

38.—(1) ... ... ...

(2) The successful bid shall be—

(a) where price is the only award criterion, the bid with the lowest bid price; or

(b) where there are price and other award criteria, the most advantageous bid ascertained on the basis of the criteria and procedures for evaluation bids specified in the bidding documents in accordance with section 35 and any offset prescribed by the regulations under section 60(1)(e).
SECTION 44 OF THE PRINCIPAL ACT WHICH IT IS PROPOSED TO AMEND

44.—(1) ... ... ...

(4) A standstill notice shall not be required in the case of the award of procurement contracts—

(a) pursuant to a framework agreement, unless the award of the procurement contract is by way of a competitive process;

(b) where the contract price is less than the Tier 1 Limit; or

(c) where the procuring entity determines that there is an urgent need in the public interest that requires, the procurement to proceed without a standstill period, in which case, the decision of the procuring entity that such urgent considerations exist and the reasons for the decision shall be included in the record of the procurement proceedings.

(5) Subject to section 48(5)(b) the procuring entity, upon determining the successful bid, shall—

(a) forthwith, on the expiry of the standstill period; or

(b) promptly, where there is no standstill period, dispatch the notice of acceptance of the successful bid to the successful bidder and the dispatch of this notice shall constitute the award of contract.
