Fatal Shooting	Everol McKenzie	On Sunday the 18th day of May 2014, about 1:00 p.m. a police party went to the home of the now deceased Everol McKenzie to apprehend him as he was a suspect in a case of Malicious Destruction of Property. On approaching the premises, the now deceased was seen, he looked in their direction, ran into his house and locked himself inside. The police called for him to exit his house but he refused. He eventually came out with a machete and a piece of steel and he advanced towards Constable who was nearest to him. Another Constable pulled his service pistol and fired two (2) warning shots to try to get the now deceased Everol McKenzie to drop his weapons. The now deceased continued to advance towards Constable with the machete still held in a chopping position. Constable retreated until he was against the fence and in fear for his life pulled his service pistol and fired two rounds in the direction of the now deceased who fell to the ground still clutching the machete. He was rushed to the Port Antonio Hospital where he was pronounced dead by Dr. Thin at 1:10 p.m. He was identified as Everol McKenzie o/c Ernie, 43 years old of the same address. There is no evidence to negative the police claim to self-defence.	The Commission respectfully recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken against the concerned officers in relation to the fatal shooting of Everol Mckenzie. The file be forwarded to the Special Coroner.	No Charge

The file be forwarded to the Special Coroner.	No Charge
Fatal Shooting	Damion Davis	On Thursday August 27, 2015 at about 4:30 p.m. officers from the Hunts Bay police station were on mobile patrol along Espuet Avenue when on reaching the intersection with North Anderson Crescent they saw a man who acted in a suspicious manner. When accosted he allegedly pulled a firearm and fired on the police who returned the gunfire. The man was hit and taken to KPH where he was pronounced dead. Ms. AS visited the scene and stated that she was on her way from church and walking through KPH when she saw persons looking at a man who was shot and injured. She went to look at the man and realized that it was her son whom she identified as Damion Davis. A .357 Smith and Wesson revolver with 3 live rounds and 3 spent casings was recovered from the scene. There is no evidence to negative the police claim to self-defence.	The Commission respectfully recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken against any of the concerned officers in relation to the fatal shooting of Damion Davis. The file be forwarded to the Special Coroner.	No Charge
Fatal Shooting	Richard Howell	A police team was under heavy gunfire in the Rivoli/Lauriston area of Spanish Town. That team had to be rescued by support units from both the JCF and the JDF. Arising from that incident, on Thursday the 8 th day of December, 2011 at about 5:30 p.m. a team of police officers were on mobile patrol in the Monk Street area of Spanish Town when they received information that one of the gunmen now deceased Richard Howell who had earlier engaged the police in a shootout was at a named premises. On arrival at premises on Monk Street, the Police encountered a girl who reportedly told them that she had been raped by a man fitting the description of the person they were searching for. The police went to investigate at this location they accosted Richard Howell who pulled a firearm from his waist band and opened gunfire at the police. The police party took evasive action. He was subsequently shot and a .38 revolver with four (4) shell casings and two (2) live rounds were taken from him. Richard Howell was taken to the Spanish Town Hospital where he was pronounced dead by a doctor on duty. There is no evidence to negative the police claim to self-defence.	The Commission respectfully recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in relation to the fatal shooting of Richard Howell. The file be forwarded to the Special Coroner.	No Charge

Assault	AKG	On Monday, December 11, 2017 about 1:00 p.m. the complainant AKG was pulled over by police officers in Bull Bay. His passengers were told to exit the 1991 Toyota Corolla he was driving. He was asked for his car papers before the car was searched. The police officer asked for his car keys and he told him that his boss wanted to speak to him. He said he did not want to speak to anyone and he told the police he could not give him the keys. Two (2) more police officers joined the first officer and he was grabbed by the waist and hit three (3) times with a baton. He was also kicked repeatedly. While being kicked he was speaking to his boss. He was then handcuffed from behind. He was taken to Bull Bay Police Station in a police vehicle before going to Yallahs Police Station where he received a ticket for operating a vehicle without road license. On repeated occasions since January 3, 2018 to February 6, 2018, the complainant expressed disinterest in the matter being investigated. He officially signed a Withdrawal Form on February 6, 2018 expressing his desire for no further investigation to be conducted regarding the matter.	The file is closed as the complainant is unwilling to continue the matter. It is hereby recommended that no criminal charges be laid or departmental action taken in respect of this complaint.	No Charge
Assault	AM	On March 28, 2014 the complainant AM alleged that two police officers entered the store that he was employed located at Pier View Complex, Ocho Rios and assaulted him. He stated that he witnessed two police officers assaulting a man and attempted to record it on his cellular phone. He stated that the police officers held him against his will, inside the store assaulted him and took away his phone. The phone was returned to him at the Ocho Rios Police Station after he went there and retrieved it. The complainant requested that the police officers return to his place of employment and apologized to him. Mr. M posited that the police officers subsequently issued him with an apology and as a result he is no longer interested in pursuing his complaint to INDECOM. Mr. M wrote a letter to INDECOM informing of the apology that was issued to him and his desire not to pursue his complaint any further.	The file is closed as the complainant is unwilling to continue the matter. It is hereby recommended that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action taken in respect of this complaint.	No Charge

On the arrival of the Police they saw a group of about three (3) men and accosted them, the men opened gunfire which was returned by the Police. The men ran in different directions and when the shooting subsided an unidentified man was found suffering from gunshot wounds to his upper body. One .45 Colt pistol with a magazine containing three rounds was found beside him. He was taken to the May Pen Hospital where he was pronounced dead. The body of the deceased was identified on September 7, 2013 as that of Joel Wynter by his sister. There is no evidence to negative the police claim to self-defence.	The Commission respectfully recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in relation to the fatal shooting of Joel Wynter. The file be forwarded to the Special Coroner.	No Charge
Fatal Shooting	Horace Manderson	On Thursday 24th day of January 2013 at about 1:10 p.m. Horace Manderson was shot and killed by the police on 5th Street off Marl Road Kingston. It is reported that the police received information from Police Control about a spate of robberies committed by men travelling in a grey and black, Toyota, Mark II motor car. A marked police unit from Kingston Central Police Division attempted to intercept the car. The car was signaled to stop but the driver disobeyed the police instructions and shots were fired from the car. The police returned the fire. Other units in the vicinity also engaged the motor car. A pursuit ensued after which the motor car crashed along the 5th Street off Marl Road. Another shootout ensued during which one of the men was shot and injured. He along with the other men who also suffered injuries were taken to KPH where he was pronounced dead. The other injured man was treated and released in the custody of police officers. The third man was taken into custody. There is no evidence to negative the police claim to self-defence.	The Commission respectfully recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken against any of the concerned officers in relation to the fatal shooting of Horace Manderson. The file be forwarded to the Special Coroner.	No Charge
Fatality Other	Robert Taylor	This report concerns the death of Robert Taylor who succumbed to injuries at the Kingston Public Hospital (KPH) following an accident wherein he fell and hit his head. It is reported that at approximately 6:20 pm a man was committing a robbery in the South Parade bus terminus when the police intervened. In a bid to escape, the man reportedly ran into a parked JUTC bus, he then fell and hit his head on the layby. He was subsequently accosted by the police and was taken to the Kingston Public Hospital where he died. The Post-Mortem Report indicates that he died as a result of blunt force trauma to the head. Constables were the officers present when the incident happened. The now deceased was purportedly carrying out a robbery of Constable's girlfriend when the incident transpired. No evidence has been uncovered which refutes the version of the concerned officers which is also supported by girlfriend of Constable and the person who was being robbed.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken for the death of Mr. Robert Taylor. It is further recommended that the file be forwarded to the Special Coroner for the consideration of whether or not an inquest ought to be held into the death of Robert Taylor and the unidentified.	No Charge

Fatal Shooting	Melvin Johnson & Javon Henry	This report concerns the deaths of Melvin Johnson and Javon Henry who were shot and killed by officers of the on the 29 th day of June, 2013. The allegations are that two men, who were travelling on a motorcycle, robbed a woman of her hand bag along Red Hill Roads. A radio transmission was issued through Police Control informing them of the incident and giving them a description of the alleged perpetrators. Officers report that they saw a motorcycle fitting the description given by police control. They allegedly intercepted the motorcycle which sped away and subsequently engaged the officers in a shootout. During the shootout one of the men fell from the motorcycle and a firearm was recovered from him. The second man was later found in a neighbouring community suffering from gunshot wounds. They were both transported to the Kingston Public Hospital where they were pronounced dead. This version is unanimously reported by all the officers; no contrary version was received.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken. It is further recommended that the file be forwarded to the Special Coroner for the consideration of whether or not an inquest ought to be held into the deaths of the Javon Henry and Melvin Johnson	No Charge
Assault	CM	Allegations are that on September 24, 2012 about 10:45 pm the complainant, CM, was driving his private vehicle along the Morant Bay Main Road, when he was stopped by a policeman later identified as a Constable. He recognized Constable as the same policeman who had stopped him two weeks prior. Cons. was also accompanied by two other policemen. Mr. M alleges that he complied with the officers instructions and stopped his vehicle, however, the officers behaved in an unprofessional manner and one of the officers in particular assaulted him with pepper spray while he was sitting in his vehicle. He asserts further that the officer's actions were unnecessary and unprovoked. However, whilst Mr. M identified Constable as one of the officers who dealt unprofessionally with him, there is no positive identification of the officer who allegedly pepper sprayed him nor was this officer identified throughout the investigations. There is therefore no evidence upon which a charge may be laid against any officer for the offence of assault.	In light of the foregoing, it is recommended that no criminal charges be laid, or be taken against the Constable or any member of the Jamaica Constabulary force for the allegations that they assaulted Mr. M. The Commission recommends that Constable be reminded of his obligations under the Jamaica Constabulary Law Enforcement Code of Ethics and the Jamaica Constabulary Force Code of Conduct to deal courteously and respectfully with all citizens.	No Charge

Assault	AH	Mr. H states he had an altercation with his girlfriend as a result of which the police came to his house on the 16th day of September, 2011 and assaulted him. He states that he recognized one of the policemen as Constable from the Lucea Police Station whom he knew very well. The other officer he did not know but later learnt was Corporal. Mr. H explains that when the officers came to his house he asked them what they wanted; the officer responded by slapping him on his face and punching him twice in his belly. Constable then allegedly grabbed him by his neck and squeezed it. He was then arrested and taken to the Lucea Police Station where he was again beaten by Constable. He was charged with assaulting a police officer and subsequently found guilty of this charge. The complainant was examined by a medical practitioner five (5) days after the incident happened but no obvious injuries were observed. The complainant has further indicated that he is not interested in furthering his complaint.	The Commission recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken.	No Charge
Fatal Shooting	Vinroy Butler	Mr. Vinroy Butler was fatally shot by the police on 12th day of November, 2011 by a team of officers from the Old Harbour Police Station. The officers all indicate that at approximately 1:20a.m. they were on special patrol duties in the Old Harbour area when, on approaching a night club, they saw a man acting suspiciously. They accordingly attempted to accost the man who ran unto the premises of the night club. The police gave chase to the said man who then drew a firearm from his waistband and fired shots at the police. The police, in defence of their lives, returned gunfire at the man who fled over a wall and unto nearby premises. The man was later found suffering from gunshot wounds with a .38 revolver beside him. He was taken to the Spanish Town Hospital where he was pronounced dead. No contrary version has been received.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken for the death of Vinroy Butler. It is recommended that the file be forwarded to the Special Coroner for his consideration of whether an inquest ought to be held into circumstances which led to the death of Vinroy Butler.	No Charge

Death in Custody	Gauntlett Redfin	Mr. Gauntlett Redfin, an inmate at the Richmond Farm Adult Correctional Centre, died on the 3rd day of November, 2017 after a period of illness. It is reported that Mr. Redfin had been sick for some time and had been seeing a doctor from 25th day of February, 2017. On the 25th day of October he was admitted to the Annotto Bay Hospital, where he was released a few days later and again readmitted on the 31st day of October, 2017. Mr. Redfin was recently diagnosed and died from complications therefrom. The Post Mortem examination and medical records leading up to his death confirms this. No foul play was alleged or otherwise suspected in respect of Mr. Redfin's death.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken against any member of the security force or against any correctional officer of the Tamarind Farm Adult Correctional Centre, present on duty when Mr. Redfin died. It is recommended that the file be forwarded to the Special Coroner for his consideration of whether an inquest ought to be held into this fatality.	No Charge
Death in Custody	Rohan Anthony Wildman	Mr. Rohan Wildman, an inmate at the Spanish Town Police Station, died suddenly on the 28th day of November, 2015. It is reported that Mr. Wildman sudden fell ill and was seen on the floor breathing heavily at about 2:45pm on the day in question. He was immediately taken to the Spanish Town Hospital where he was pronounced dead at 3:02 p.m. The Post Mortem Report indicates that Mr. Wildman died as a result of Sepsis and Lumbar Pneumonia. No foul play was alleged or otherwise suspected in respect of Mr. Wildman's death.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken against any member of the Spanish Town Police Station present on duty when Mr. Wildman died. It is recommended that the file be forwarded to the Special Coroner for his consideration of whether an inquest ought to be held into this fatality.	No Charge

False Imprisonment	Mrs. IB o.b.o KB	The complainant, Mr. B, states that he is being continuously harassed by the police. He recalls that on two separate occasions in 2010 he was arrested and detained for a day without being charged. On the 1st day of September, 2011, he was arrested and detained by the police, to include "Mr. M" His house was also searched and a quantity of marijuana found in his parents' room. Nothing was however found in his room. He was placed on an identification parade and thereafter released on the 7th day of September, 2011. Mr. B explains further that he has a cousin, who looks like him and who is close to him in age who was involved in wrong doing and is an alleged murdered. He believes that he is being harassed by the police because of his resemblance to his cousin. There are no records to substantiate the alleged initial detentions of the complainant in 2010 nor was the complainant able to remember any of the dates he was purportedly arrested by the police, as a result no officers were identified concerning those detentions. However, in respect of the detention on the 1st day of September, 2011, the police contend that Mr. B was arrested on reasonable suspicion of Shooting with Intent in relation to an incident which happened in Linstead. He was however released as he failed to match the description of the suspect in the incident	It is respectfully recommended that the Commissioner of Police: Be advised of the Commission's findings that the complainant, Mr. KB: was unlawfully arrested on the 1st day of September, 2011; was unlawfully detained for a period of seven (7) days from the 1st day of September, 2011 without being charged and the issue of bail was considered.	Disciplinary Action

Fatal Shooting	Leroy Henry, Jnr.	On Monday, June 3, 2013, about 9:05 a.m., Mr. RF was allegedly robbed in the vicinity of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Claremont, Saint Ann by three gunmen who were travelling in a motorcar. The assailants left with an undetermined sum of money. A report was made to the Claremont Police Station. As a result, a number of officers went in search of the alleged robbers, including the concerned officers. Detective Constable was ensued in gunfire with the alleged robbers. Suspect TW o/c “Biggs” was taken into custody. The search of the other two men continued onto Broad Street, Claremont. Detective Constable and Constable encountered the alleged men who opened fire on them. Officer returned fire. One of the assailants escaped. However, the other fell. Both officers went in pursuit of the gunman who escaped during which two gunshots were heard coming from the direction which they came. Both officers returned to the direction where the gunshots were heard and found an off duty police officer, with a gun in his hand and an injured man later identified as Leroy Henry, Jnr. Mr. Henry was taken to the St. Ann’s Bay Hospital where he was pronounced dead. It is difficult to prove who killed Mr. Henry as three officers indicated that they fired and nothing of ballistic significance was recovered from Mr. Henry’s body. There is also no eyewitness account to deny or affirm the police’s account.	In these circumstances, the Commission recommends no criminal charges against. The Commission hereby recommends the following: That the matter be referred to the Special Coroner for his attention as to whether an inquest ought to be held with the view of establishing whether or not a murder was committed.	No Charge
Fatal Shooting	Cornel Alphanso Hall o/c Earl	The deceased, Cornel A. Hall was shot and killed at White Street, Kingston 13 on April 16, 2011. The police claims the deceased pointed a firearm at them and as such had to fire to avert threat to life. The witness evidence is that Hall was executed.	The Commission has found a prima facie case with a reasonable likelihood of conviction to charge. Accordingly, its recommended that the concerned officers, mentioned are to be charged for Murder.	Charge
Assault	AW	The complainant, AW alleges that she was assaulted by police officers at a supermarket opposite Oliver’s Hardware in Clark’s Town, Trelawny on August 1, 2016.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charge or disciplinary action be taken.	No Charge

Assault	DR	The complainant, DR alleges that on May 4, 2012, while he was in the custody of the police on May 4, 2012 at the Montego Bay Police Station, his arresting officer, used a baton to hit him in the back of his head. He lost consciousness while he was in Cell 16, and was later found, on medical examination, to have sustained injury to his cerebellum and brain stem. He is permanently disabled, and is unlikely to obtain or pursue gainful employment.	The Commission hereby recommends that the complainant be advised to pursue his civil remedies in respect of the injuries he received while in police custody from May 4-5, 2012.	No Charge
Fatal Shooting	Triston Hunter o/c Marlon or Squaddie	The deceased, Triston Hunter, was shot and killed in the Brown's Land Community, Kingston 11, St. Andrew on May 30, 2014, in circumstances alleged to be self-defence. The Commission's investigation of this matter did not yield any evidence sufficient to negative self-defence, nor to afford a realistic prospect of conviction.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in respect of this incident.  The Commission further opines that this matter ought to be forwarded to the Office of the Special Coroner for him to decide whether an inquest will be held.	No Charge
Fatal Shooting	Creighton Patrick	The deceased, Creighton Patrick was shot and killed during a shootout with the police. He and three (3) other men had committed the aggravated robbery of a bus from its driver and conductor on November 13, 2011 in the vicinity of Delacree Road. King Alarm Systems Limited and the police were notified. A joint tracking and pursuit of the stolen bus revealed its location in 7 Miles Bull Bay. It was during its interception that Patrick, as driver of the bus, received numerous gunshots. The two (2) injured men have since been charged for Shooting with Intent and Illegal Possession of a Firearm.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid in respect of this fatal shooting.  The Commission further recommends that this matter be forwarded the Special Coroner for him to decide whether an inquest ought to be held.	No Charge
Assault	CH	The complainant, CH alleges that he was assaulted on July 24, 2015. While there is evidence of an assault, the Commission, having considered all the circumstances, opined that the force used against his person was employed to secure his submission to a lawful arrest, which he was resisting.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken.	No Charge

Assault	JC	The complainant and his witnesses allege that on October 9, 2012, various acts of battery were committed by the police on his person. He thereby sustained actual bodily harm. The Commission's investigation aimed at determining whether there was a prima facie case to charge with a realistic prospect of conviction. However, the complainant's death some two (2) months after the complaint was lodged has stymied the investigation.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken against any member of the Jamaica Constabulary Force in respect of this complaint.	No Charge
Assault	SB	The complainant is alleging that she was assaulted, and thereby sustained bodily harm to her neck, shoulder, and back. The incident occurred along St. James Street on January 6, 2012. The complainant was charged, and pled guilty to three (3) offences on January 19, 2012.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in respect of this complaint.	No Charge
Shooting Injury	SH	The complainant, SH, alleges that on June 28, 2015 she was shot and injured whilst she was walking along Charles Street. The respondents aver that they were attacked by a group of gunmen and had to return gunfire in the direction of the gunmen in a bid to defend their lives. Once the gunfire subsided, they found the complainant suffering from gunshot wounds.	It is hereby recommended that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in respect of this complaint.	No Charge
Threat	CY	The complainant, CY, alleges that on February 28, 2012 he was at a party when he was assaulted and threatened by a police officer. The respondent contends that he was accosted by a group of men as a result of which he withdrew his firearm and pointed it in their direction.	It is hereby recommended that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in respect of this complaint.	No Charge
Threat	AS	The Complainant, AS, alleges that he was threatened by a police officer whilst he was detained at the Lucea Police Headquarters. The respondent asserts that he did not threaten the complainant.	It is hereby recommended that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in respect of this complaint.	No Charge
Assault	HR	The complainant, HR, alleges that on February 28, 2014 he was assaulted by members of the Jamaica Constabulary Force whilst he was at his shop.	It is hereby recommended that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken against any member of the Jamaica Constabulary Force in respect of this complaint. The file is hereby closed as unsubstantiated.	No Charge

Assault	CA	The complainant, CA, was being detained at the St. Ann’s Bay Police Station. He alleged that he was engaged in dialogue when he was attacked by Constable. Constable contends that he attempted to search the complainant before he entered the cell block and the complainant refused to allow same. He indicated that the complainant attempted to enter the cell block, without being search, and he prevented the complainant from doing same by holding on to him. At this point, he asserts that the complainant began hitting him and he had to use a baton to strike in his direction until he retreated.	It is recommended that no criminal charges be laid in respect of this complaint. It is respectfully recommended that the Commissioner of Police: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i. Be advised of the Commission’s finding that a prima facie case exists that Constable breached Section 14 of the Use of Force Policy, and Section VIII(A) of Chapter 23 of the JCF Standing Orders (F.O. #2248; Use of Force).</li> <li>ii. Causes such internal disciplinary proceedings as are fit and proper to be instituted to determine whether he committed the breach described in the preceding sub paragraph. Misappropriation of Property
Fatal Shooting	Wayne Graham	On June 9, 2014, shortly after 5:00 a.m., Wayne Graham was fatally shot in the vicinity of the intersection of Eltham Boulevard and Brunswick Avenue in St. Catherine. The concerned officer was at home sleeping when he was awakened by the noise of a motor car engine starting followed by loud noises from a car muffler which sounded similar to the noises made by his Honda Civic motor car. He arose from bed and looked outside to discover that his motor car was missing. He took up his 'keep and care' Glock pistol and police identification card and ran outside in search of the perpetrator/s who stole his motor car whom he located along Brunswick Avenue and accosted them. One of the suspects pointed a chrome revolver at him and opened fire. In fear for his life he returned fire at the gunman who ran towards the front passenger door. Another male suspect then exited the car from the front passenger door and the gunman continued to fire at him while running away from the scene toward the Eltham High School. After the shooting subsided, he discovered the second perpetrator lying face down and motionless on the ground who was subsequently taken to the Spanish Town Hospital where he was pronounced dead.	The Commission respectfully recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in relation to the fatal shooting of Wayne Graham.	No Charge
Fatal Shooting	Cleon Richards	On July 5, 2014, at about 1:30 a.m., Cleon Richards was fatally shot at Belmore Lane in St. Catherine by officers from the Area 5 Operational Support Unit who were on mobile patrol in the Spanish Town police area. It is reported that the concerned officers were patrolling along Williams Street in the Spanish Town area when they heard gunshots coming from the direction of Belmore Lane. They parked the service vehicle along the roadway and proceeded on foot along Belmore Lane to carry out investigations. While walking along Belmore Lane, they observed a man exiting an open lot and walking onto the street with a firearm in his hand. The police accosted the said man who then turned around, pointed the firearm at the police and opened gunfire. The concerned officers quickly took evasive action and returned fire in the direction of the said gunman who ran off but fell to the ground a short distance away. After the shooting subsided, the police cautiously approached the fallen gunman who appeared to be suffering from gunshot injuries. The police recovered a 'Taurus' 9mm pistol from the injured gunman who was rushed to the Spanish Town Hospital where he succumbed to his injuries whilst undergoing treatment.	The Commission respectfully recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in relation to the fatal shooting of Cleon Richards.	No Charge

Fatal Shooting	Davion Morris	On November 30, 2013, at about 9:40 p.m., Davion Morris was shot and killed along the Wiltshire Main Road in Saint James, during an attempt by the said officer to apprehend the now deceased who was one of two perpetrators who had robbed Mr. BS of his motor car at gunpoint. The concerned officer accosted the robbers and one of the men opened fire at the officer forcing him to return fire in their direction in self-defence. After the gunman fled the scene and the shooting subsided, the now deceased was discovered inside the driver's seat of the stolen motor car suffering from a gunshot wound to the head. He was transported to the Falmouth Hospital where he was pronounced dead on arrival.	The Commission respectfully recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in relation to the fatal shooting of Davion Morris.	No Charge
Unlawful Seizure of Property	SM	SM alleges that he owns and operates a bar at Perth Road in Manchester. Sometime between July and October 2011, a group of about four or five police officers came to his place of business and confiscated alcohol and a spirit licence which according to them was inauthentic. On the conclusion of shootout, the deceased was placed in a police service vehicle and transported to the Spanish Town Hospital by other police personnel. After proceeding to the Spanish Town Police Station, a black police service vehicle entered the Station’s compound and informed that the man had been treated at the mentioned hospital and released back into police custody to be remanded. The man was assisted into another service vehicle. On observing that the man was unresponsive, the man was again transported to the Spanish Town Hospital where he was pronounced dead by medical personnel. A medical certificate dated the 10 th day of June, 2015, relating to the deceased was obtained from the Spanish Town Hospital.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be taken in respect of the fatal shooting of Carrington Edwards on June 10, 2015.	No Charge
Malicious Destruction of Property	GF	The complainant, GF, alleges that on the 2 nd day of March, 2011, he was at the Fisherman’s Beach at Mammee Bay in the parish of Saint Ann for the purpose of test-riding his jet ski. After so doing and whilst sitting on his jet-ski partly parked on the shore, a police officer rode up on a jet ski and fired shots at a van and at his jet ski, whilst he was still sitting on it. His jet ski was damaged as a result of the officer’s actions. The police account posit that the concerned officers, were dispatched in relation to a report from the RIU hotel in St. Ann that illegal jet ski operators were harassing tourists and selling drugs. Constable posited that he was knocked from the police jet ski and almost killed by an illegal jet ski operator whilst he was in the water. On the rider’s repeated attempt to hit him using the jet ski, he withdrew his service weapon and discharged several rounds in the direction of the man’s jet ski.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action taken in respect of this complaint.	No Charge
