1. Summary of Investigation and Findings

- 1.1 This investigation by the Director of Investigation concerned the allegation that Mrs. Carole-Ann Yee Sing-Douse, an employee of South East Regional Health Authority (SERHA) failed to file with the Commission, statutory declarations for the periods ending December 31, 2014 to December 31, 2017.
- 1.2 Under Section 4(1) and 3(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act and the Corruption Prevention Regulation, 2003 respectively, public servants who are in receipt of emoluments of two million dollars or more are required to file a statutory declaration with the Commission.
- 1.3 The evidence provided by SERHA showed that Mrs. Carole-Ann Yee Sing-Douse is a public servant and that she is in receipt of emoluments in excess of the threshold of two million dollars.
- 1.4 The evidence provided by the System Support Officer who has responsibility for the daily receipt of the statutory declarations at the Commission showed that Mrs. Carole-Ann Yee Sing-Douse was delinquent in that she failed to file the required statutory declarations for the periods outlined.

December 31, 2017	March 31, 2018	Nil	December 31, 2017

1.5 The concerned public officer was notified and given 30 days to file the outstanding declarations. She acknowledged receipt of the notice however, she failed to comply within the time specified in the notice. This was confirmed by the evidence provided by the Director of Information and Complaints. A copy of the notice and the signed acknowledgement is shown at appendices 1 - 3 below.

1.6 The failure to file a statutory declaration is an offence under Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act.

1.7 The concerned public officer has provided no lawful justification or excuse for her failure to file the required statutory declarations.

1.8 Findings

1.8.1 The Director of Investigation has reasonable grounds to conclude based on the foregoing, that the concerned public officer is in breach of Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act for the periods specified in table 1 above.

1.9 Recommendation 1

1.9.1 That the report be referred to the Director of Corruption Prosecution for consideration.

2. Chapter 1 – Background

2.1 This chapter sets out the background information concerning the investigation, the jurisdiction and the decision to investigate, the scope of the investigation and provides a profile of the individual pertinent to the investigation.

2.2 How did this investigation come about?

2.2.1 The investigation into the concerned public officer's originated from a referral by Director of Information and Complaints. The complaint alleges that the concerned public officer had failed to file statutory declarations for the periods ending December 31, 2014 to December 31, 2017, in compliance with Section 4(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act.

2.3 Jurisdiction and decision to investigate

2.3.1 Under Section 6(1)(a) of the Integrity Commission Act the Commission is mandated to:

“(a) investigate alleged or suspected acts of corruption and instances of non-compliance with the provisions of this Act.”

Also Section 33(1)(a) of the said Act

“(1) The Director of Investigation shall-

(a) without prejudice to the provisions of any other enactment, and subject to any general or specific direction of the Commission, investigate, in the manner specified by or under this Act, any allegation that involves or may involve an act of corruption or any allegation relating to non-compliance with the provisions of this Act.”

Section 47 of the Act:

47.—(1) The Director of Investigation, shall upon receipt of a matter pursuant to section 46, examine the matter in order to determine whether or not an investigation in relation to the matter is warranted.

(2) The Director of Investigation shall, in determining whether to investigate a matter that has been referred to him, consider—

- (a) the seriousness of the conduct to which the matter relates;*
- (b) whether or not the matter is frivolous or vexatious;
whether or not the conduct to which the matter relates is or has been the subject of an investigation or other action by any other authority under any other enactment.*
- (c) whether or not the conduct to which the matter relates is or has been the subject of an investigation or other action by any other authority under any other enactment.”*

Section 63 of the Integrity Commission Act states:

“63.—(1) Notwithstanding the amendment or repeal of an Act under this Part, as from the appointed day any legal proceedings or claim pending immediately before the appointed day, which, before the appointed day, were brought, continued or enforced by or against any of the respective Commissions, shall be brought, continued or enforced by or against the Commission in the same manner as they would have been brought, continued or enforced before the appointed day.

(2) The Commission established under this Act may—

(a) commence or assume any investigation, swear any information or commence or conduct any prosecution in respect of an offence committed, or alleged to be committed before the appointed day under a provision of either of the amended Acts that has been amended or repealed by this Act, or under the repealed Act, and each such amended or repealed provision and the repealed Act shall be deemed to remain in full force and effect, for the purposes of any such investigation, information and prosecution as it had been immediately before the appointed day; or

(b) continue or do any act, thing or investigation which was pending before the appointed day.

(3) The Court shall, in respect of any proceedings instituted following any investigation under subsection (2), have all the powers that it could exercise pursuant to the amended Acts and the repealed Act as if they remain in full force and effect.”

2.3.2 Based on the foregoing provisions, the Director of Investigation deemed that an investigation was warranted.

2.4 The Investigation

2.4.1 During the course of the investigation, Officers of the Investigation Division under the authority of the Director of Investigation did the following:

a) obtained information and witness statements from the responsible officers at:

(i) South East Regional Health Authority; and

(i) Information and Complaints Division of the Integrity Commission;

b) reviewed the information and statements collected and prepared the case file and report.

2.5 Who is the Individual Pertinent to the Investigation?

2.5.1 Mrs. Carole-Ann Yee Sing-Douse was considered pertinent to the investigation. Mrs. Yee Sing-Douse is employed to SERHA. She was in their employment during the investigation period December 31, 2014 to December 31, 2017.

3. Chapter 2 – Terms of Reference

- 3.1 This chapter sets out the scope of the investigation and the issues that were explored.
- 3.2 In conducting the investigation, the Director of Investigation sets out to establish whether:
- a) the concerned public officer is a public servant as described under Section 2(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act;
 - b) the concerned public officer was in receipt of the qualifying emoluments as prescribed under Section 3(1) of the Corruption Prevention Regulation (2003), occupies a post that is listed in Part I or Part II of the said Regulations or was written to under Section 4(5A)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act and requested to file the statutory declarations;
 - c) the concerned public officer failed to file the required statutory declarations as prescribed under Section 4(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act and Section 3(1) of the Corruption Prevention Regulation (2003);
 - d) the concerned public officer was notified of her failure and warned of consequential penalties;

- e) the concerned public officer's failure to file the required statutory declarations constitutes an offence under the Act;
- f) the concerned public officer has a lawful justification or excuse for her failure to file;
- g) recommendations ought to be made to the Director of Corruption Prosecution; and
- h) recommendations ought to be made in respect of any act of corruption and/or anti-corruption initiatives.

4. Chapter 3 – The Law, Evidence and the Discussion of the Findings

4.1 This chapter sets out the relevant laws in respect of the investigation, the evidence gathered and the discussion of the findings.

4.2.1 The Law

4.2.1 The object of the Commission's investigation was to determine whether there is merit in the allegation that Mrs. Carole-Ann Yee Sing-Douse failed to file the required statutory declarations. The legal implications of the foregoing are described under Section 4(1) and 3(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act and Corruption Prevention Regulation (2003) respectively, which states:

Section 4(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act:

“every person who, on or after the appointed day, is a public servant shall subject to subsection (2), (3) and 4), furnish to the Commission a statutory declaration of his assets and liability and his income in the form set out as form A in the Second schedule.”

Subsection 3 states:

“Subsection (1) shall not apply to a public servant –

(a) Who is in receipt of total emoluments less than the prescribed amount.”

Section 3(1) of the Corruption Prevention Regulation (2003):

“Subject to paragraph (2), the statutory declaration required by Section 4(1) of the Act shall not be furnished by a public servant who is in receipt of total emoluments of less than two million dollars per annum.”

The penalty for the failure to file a statutory declaration under Section 15(2) is:

Section 15(2) of the Corruption Prevention Act:

“Any person who –

(a) Fails, without reasonable cause, to furnish to the Commission a statutory declaration which he is required to furnish in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

commits an offence, and shall on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate’s Court be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.”

4.3 The Evidence

4.3.1 Is the concerned public officer a public servant as described under Section 2(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act?

4.3.1.1 The concerned public officer was employed at SERHA during the period September 04, 2013 to present. This was established in the evidence provided by the Director of Human Resource and Industrial Relations at SERHA. The concerned public officer therefore falls within the definition of a “public servant” under Section 2(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act.

4.3.2 Is the concerned public officer in receipt of the qualifying emoluments as prescribed under Section 3(1) of the Corruption Prevention Regulation, 2003, occupies a post listed under Part I or Part II of the said Regulations or was written to under Section 4(5A)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act and requested to file the statutory declarations?

4.3.2.1 The concerned public officer was in receipt of the qualifying emoluments of $2 million or above as prescribed under Section 3(1) of the Corruption Prevention Regulation during the period of concern. This was established in the evidence provided by the Director of Human Resource and Industrial Relations at SERHA as shown below:

Table 2: Total Emoluments

Period	Emoluments
December 31, 2014	$5,084,740.56
December 31, 2015	$5,494,489.50
December 31, 2016	$5,956,703.26
December 31, 2017	$5,495,431.38

4.3.2.2 The concerned public officer was therefore required to file the statutory declarations for these periods.

4.3.3 Did the concerned public officer fail to file a statutory declaration as required under Section 4(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act?

4.3.3.1 The procedure for identifying a declarant who has not filed a statutory declaration begins with the Director of Information and Complaints writing the heads of all Ministries, departments and agencies and requesting a list of those persons who qualify to file the statutory declarations. When the referred lists are received, the information is entered into a database, which provides the list of prospective declarants. Mrs. Yee Sing-Douse's name appeared on this list for the periods ending December 31, 2014 to December 31, 2017.

4.3.3.2 The Commission through the media, internet, seminars and various other forms of communication informed declarants of their obligation and the deadline for the filing of statutory declarations. The evidence provided by the Director of Information and Complaints showed publications as outlined below:

The Sunday Observer	March 25, 2018	December 31, 2017

4.3.3.3 When the statutory declarations are filed they are also entered into a database. This enables the Commission to generate a list of those who have not complied with their statutory obligations under Section 4(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act.

4.3.3.4 The evidence provided by the System Support Officer who has responsible for the daily receipt of the statutory declarations at the Commission showed that Mrs. Carole-Ann Yee Sing-Douse had not filed the required statutory declarations as outlined below:

Table 4: Outstanding Declarations

Declaration Period	Declaration Due	Declaration Filed	Outstanding Declaration

December 31, 2017	March 31, 2018	Nil	December 31, 2017

4.3.4 Was the concerned public officer notified of her failure to file the required statutory declarations and warned of consequential penalties?

4.3.4.1 The concerned public officer was notified and given 30 days to file the outstanding declarations. Mrs. Yee Sing-Douse acknowledged receipt of the notice however, she failed to comply within the time specified in the notice. This was confirmed by the evidence provided by the Director of Information and Complaints. A copy of the notice and the signed acknowledgement is shown at appendices 1 - 3 below.

4.3.5 Does the concerned public officer's failure to file the required statutory declarations constitute an offence under the Act?

4.3.5.1 The failure to file a statutory declaration is an offence under Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act, which states:

“Any person who –

(b) Fails, without reasonable cause, to furnish to the Commission a statutory declaration which she is required to furnish in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

commits an offence, and shall on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate’s Court be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment.”

4.3.6 Did the concerned public officer have a lawful explanation or excuse for her failure to file the statutory declaration?

4.3.6.1 The concerned public officer has provided no lawful justification or excuse for her failure to file the required statutory declarations.

4.4 Discussion of the Findings

4.4.1 In the investigation into the allegations against the concerned public officer, the Director of Investigation followed all reasonable lines of enquiry, gathered evidence and collected the statements of witnesses deemed necessary. Upon analyzing the evidential materials collected, the Director of investigation is satisfied that there is evidence to support the allegation that the concerned public officer failed to file the required statutory declarations with the Commission.

4.4.2 Based on the evidence set out in this chapter, the Director of Investigation finds reasonable grounds to believe that the following have been established:

- a) The concerned public officer was a public servant as described under Section 2(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act;
- b) The concerned public officer was in receipt of the qualifying amount of two million dollars ($2,000,000) or above and was therefore required to file statutory declarations;

- c) The concerned public officer failed to file the required statutory declarations;
- d) The concerned public officer was notified of her failure to file the required statutory declarations and warned of the consequences should she fail to file the said statutory declarations;
- e) The concerned public officer's failure to file the required statutory declaration constitutes an offence under Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act; and
- f) The concerned public officer has provided no lawful justification or excuse for her failure to file the required statutory declarations.

5. Chapter 4 – Conclusion and Recommendations

5.1 This chapter sets out the conclusions drawn from the investigation and the recommendations made to improve compliance with the law.

5.2 Conclusion

5.2.1 The investigation was initiated to examine the allegation that Mrs. Carole-Ann Yee Sing-Douse, an officer employed to SERHA failed to file with the Commission the statutory declarations as required under Section 4(1) and 3(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act and Corruption Prevention Regulation (2003) respectively.

5.2.2 Based on the evidence provided by the Director of Human Resource and Industrial Relations at SERHA, Mrs. Carole-Ann Yee Sing-Douse was a public servant as defined under Section 2(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act. Mrs. Carole-Ann Yee Sing-Douse is also in receipt of emoluments in excess of Two Million Dollars and is therefore required to file the respective statutory declarations. The evidence also showed that she has failed to make the required submissions, even after being notified of her failure to file and given time to comply.

5.2.3 The Director of Investigation has reasonable grounds to conclude based upon the foregoing, that the concerned public officer is in breach of Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act for the periods specified in table 4 of this report.

5.2.4 The failure to file a statutory declaration is a breach of Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act.

5.2.5 The concerned public officer has provided no lawful justification or excuse for her failure to file the required statutory declarations.

5.3 Recommendations

5.3.1 Recommendation 1

5.3.2 That the report be referred to the Director of Corruption Prosecution for consideration.

6. Chapter 5 – Corruption Prevention Initiatives

- 6.1 This chapter examines recommendations that could improve the compliance with the law.
- 6.2 Public entities should ensure that the public officers provide, annually, proof that they are compliant with the law in respect of filing their statutory declarations. Public Bodies and the Office of the Services Commission should be engaged to ensure that compliance with the Integrity Commission Act becomes a requirement for employment and continued employment in the public service.
