4.1 This chapter sets out the relevant laws in respect of the investigation, the evidence gathered and the discussion of the findings.

4.2.1 The Law

4.2.1 The object of the Commission's investigation was to determine whether there is merit in the allegation that Mr. Jareth Daley failed to file the required statutory declarations. The legal implications of the foregoing are described under Section 4(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act and Section 3(1) and Part I of the Schedule of the Corruption (Prevention) Regulations, 2003, which states respectively:

Section 4(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act:

“every person who, on or after the appointed day, is a public servant shall subject to subsection (2), (3) and 4), furnish to the Commission a statutory declaration of his assets and liability and his income in the form set out as form A in the Second schedule.”

Subsection 3 states:

“Subsection (1) shall not apply to a public servant –

Section 3(1) of the Corruption (Prevention) Regulations (2003):

“Subject to paragraph (2), the statutory declaration required by Section 4(1) of the Act shall not be furnished by a public servant who is in receipt of total emoluments of less than two million dollars per annum.”

All members of the Island Special Constable Force

All members of the Jamaica Defence Force"

4.3 The Evidence

4.3.1 Is the concerned public officer a public servant as described under Section 2(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act?

4.3.1.1 The concerned public officer was employed at SERHA during the period September 21, 2010 to present. This was established in the evidence provided by the Director of Human Resource and Industrial Relations at SERHA. The concerned public officer therefore falls within the definition of a “public servant” under Section 2(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act.

4.3.2 Is the concerned public officer in receipt of the qualifying emoluments as prescribed under Section 3(1) of the Corruption (Prevention) Regulations, 2003, occupies a post listed under Part I or Part II of the said Regulations or was written to under Section 4(5A)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act and requested to file the statutory declarations?

4.3.2.1 The concerned public officer first occupied a post listed in Part I of the Schedule of the Corruption (Prevention) Regulations, 2003 and subsequently was in receipt of emoluments in excess of the threshold of two million dollars as prescribed under Section 3(1) of the said Regulations during the period of concern. This was established in the evidence provided by the Director of Human Resource and Industrial Relations at SERHA as shown below:

Table 2: Total Emoluments

Period	Emoluments
December 31, 2013	$1,829,559.98*
December 31, 2014	$3,507,897.04
December 31, 2015	$5,383,848.35
December 31, 2016	$4,151,729.35
December 31, 2017	$3,954,242.00

* He occupied a post that was listed in Part I of the Schedule of the Corruption (Prevention) Regulations.

4.3.2.2 The concerned public officer was therefore required to file the statutory declarations for these periods.

4.3.3 Did the concerned public officer fail to file a statutory declaration as required under Section 4\(1\) of the Corruption Prevention Act?

4.3.3.1 The procedure for identifying a declarant who has not filed a statutory declaration begins with the Director of Information and Complaints writing the heads of all Ministries, Departments and Agencies and requesting a list of those persons who qualify to file the statutory declarations. When the referred lists are received, the information is entered into a database, which provides the list of prospective declarants. Mr. Daley's name appeared on this list for the periods ending December 31, 2013 to December 31, 2017.

4.3.3.2 The Commission through the media, internet, seminars and various other forms of communication informed declarants of their obligation and the deadline for the filing of statutory declarations. The evidence provided by the Director of Information and Complaints showed publications as outlined below:

4.3.3.3 When the statutory declarations are filed they are also entered into a database. This enables the Commission to generate a list of those persons who have not complied with their statutory obligations under Section 4(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act.

4.3.3.4 The evidence provided by the System Support Officer who has responsible for the daily receipt of the statutory declarations at the Commission showed that Mr. Jareth Daley had not filed the required statutory declarations as outlined below:

4.3.4 Was the concerned public officer notified of his failure to file the required statutory declarations and warned of consequential penalties?

4.3.4.1 The concerned public officer was notified and given 30 days to file the outstanding declarations. Mr. Daley acknowledged receipt of the notice however; he failed to comply within the time specified in the notice. This was confirmed by the evidence provided by the Director of Information and Complaints. A copy of the notice and the signed acknowledgement is shown at appendices 1 - 3 below.

4.3.5 Does the concerned public officer's failure to file the required statutory declarations constitute an offence under the Act?

4.3.5.1 The failure to file a statutory declaration is an offence under Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act, which states:

"Any person who –

(b) Fails, without reasonable cause, to furnish to the Commission a statutory declaration which he is required to furnish in accordance with the provisions of this Act;

commits an offence, and shall on summary conviction in a Resident Magistrate's Court be liable to a fine not exceeding two hundred thousand dollars, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding two years or to both such fine and imprisonment."

4.3.6 Did the concerned public officer have a lawful explanation or excuse for his failure to file the statutory declaration?

4.3.6.1 The concerned public officer has provided no lawful justification or excuse for his failure to file the required statutory declarations.

4.4 Discussion of the Findings

4.4.1 During the course of the investigation into the allegations against the concerned public officer, the Director of Investigation followed all reasonable lines of enquiry, gathered evidential material and collected/recorded the statements of witnesses deemed necessary. Upon analyzing the evidential materials collected, the Director of investigation is satisfied that there is evidence to support the allegation that the concerned public officer failed to file the required statutory declarations with the Commission.

4.4.2 Based upon the evidence set out in this chapter, the Director of Investigation finds reasonable grounds to believe that the following have been established:

- a) The concerned public officer was a public servant as described under Section 2(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act;
- b) The concerned public officer first occupied a post that was listed in Part I of the Schedule of the Corruption (Prevention) Regulations and subsequently was in receipt of the qualifying amount of two million dollars ($2,000,000) or above and was therefore required to file statutory declarations;

- d) The concerned public officer was notified of his failure to file the required statutory declarations and warned of the consequences should he fail to file the said statutory declarations;

- e) The concerned public officer's failure to file the required statutory declaration constitutes an offence under Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act; and
- f) The concerned public officer has provided no lawful justification or excuse for his failure to file the required statutory declarations.

5. Chapter 4 – Conclusion and Recommendations

5.1 This chapter sets out the conclusions drawn from the investigation and the recommendations made to improve compliance with the law.

5.2 Conclusion

5.2.1 This investigation was initiated to examine the allegation that Mr. Jareth Daley, an officer employed to SERHA failed to file with the Commission, the statutory declarations as required under Section 4(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act and Section 3(1) and Part I of the Schedule of the Corruption (Prevention) Regulations, 2003.

5.2.2 The evidence provided by the Director of Human Resource and Industrial Relations at SERHA, proves that Mr. Jareth Daley was a public servant as defined under Section 2(1) of the Corruption Prevention Act. Mr. Jareth Daley also occupied a post listed in Part I of the Schedule of the Corruption (Prevention) Regulations, 2003 and subsequently was in receipt of emoluments in excess of the threshold of two million dollars and is therefore required to file the respective statutory declarations. The evidence also showed that he has failed to make the required submissions, even after being notified of his failure to file and given time to comply.

5.2.3 Based upon the foregoing, the Director of Investigation concludes that the concerned public officer has failed to file his statutory declarations under Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act for the periods specified in table 4 of this report.

5.2.4 The Director of Investigation concludes that Mr. Jareth Daley's failure to file a statutory declaration constitutes a breach of Section 15(2)(a) of the Corruption Prevention Act.

5.2.5 The Director of Investigation further concludes that the concerned public officer herein has provided no lawful justification or excuse for his failure to file the required statutory declarations.

5.3 Recommendations

5.3.2 The Director of Investigation recommends that this report be referred to the Director of Corruption Prosecution for consideration.

6. Chapter 5 – Corruption Prevention Initiatives

- 6.1 This chapter examines recommendations that could improve the compliance with the law.
