He in turn asked why he should do so and what he had done but was not given an answer by Officer or the other male officer in his company. As such, he resisted the officers and was subsequently grabbed by the shirt and slapped on the left side of his face by Officer. He was ultimately taken to the police car and transported to the Christiana Police Station on the Reasonable Suspicion of House Breaking and Larceny. He was released on November 21, 2017, without charge. Having assessed the evidence available, the Commission concludes that the evidence does not reveal a prima facie case having a realistic prospect of conviction in respect of this complaint. The Commission opines that Detective Constable and Constable be subjected to disciplinary action in respect of the unlawful detentioic was also reportedly recovered from the scene. There were no independent eyewitness to the incide	The Commission respectfully recommends that the Commissioner of Police: a) Be advised of the Commission's recommendation that Detective Constable and Constable be subjected to disciplinary action in respect of the unlawful detention of the complainant, Mr. DA, at the Christiana Police Station from November 15, 2017, to November 21, 2017. b) Causes such internal disciplinary proceedings as are fit and proper to be instituted against Detective Constable and Constable to determine whether said officers committed the breach described in the preceding sub-paragraph. c) Advise the Commission as to whether disciplinary proceedings will be instituted and, if they will, the contemplated nature of those disciplinary proceedings by October 18, 2022. d) Where disciplinary proceedings in respect of sub-paragraph (b) above are completed, communicate the outcome of the proceedings to the Commission within fifteen (15) days of their completion. It is open to the complainant to pursue civil remedies in respect of his detention at the Christiana Police Station from November 15, 2017, to November 21, 2017, and his ultimate release without charge. 52	Assault	KC	The complainant, KC, alleges that as he was about to exit the May Pen Bus Park on the afternoon of June 22, 2017, he was stopped and issued traffic tickets by Constable. After receiving his documents and said tickets, he drove his bus out of the park towards Kingston but later saw Constable and another officer pursuing him on a motorcycle. The motorcycle swung in front of him and he swerved the bus in an effort to avoid a collision. The officers did not signal to him to stop. The motorcycle proceeded some distance in front of the bus and thereafter, both officers alighted from the bike and withdrew and pointed their firearms towards the bus. The complainant brought the bus to a halt and was subsequently dragged from the vehicle by Constable. The complainant fell onto his hand as a result. He was thereafter taken to the May Pen Police Station where he was charged with multiple offences. Having assessed the evidence available, the Commission concludes that the evidence does not reveal a prima facie case having a realistic prospect of conviction.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be pursued against any member of the Security Forces in respect of this complaint. It is open to the complainant to pursue civil remedies in respect of physical injuries and proprietary damage he may have suffered during the incident with police personnel on June 22, 2017.	No Charge

53	Assault	NB	The complainant, NB, alleges that on May 19, 2020, he was at his family home in Church Lincoln, Westmoreland when his relative, O, sought to leave the premises in a motorcar after visiting. A police service unit appeared and blocked the path of O's vehicle. The two male police officers who alighted from the service unit, pointed weapons at O's vehicle and instructed that he step from the vehicle. As the complainant and another relative were passing by with the intent to purchase cooking gas at a nearby location, the officers stopped the complainant and requested to conduct a search of his person. One officer slapped the complainant in the face after he made his disgruntlement known by his facial expression. On attending the Morgan's Bridge Police Station post incident, an officer further dispersed pepper spray against him and other relatives who were present. Having assessed the evidence available, the Commission concludes that the evidence does not reveal a prima facie case having a realistic prospect of conviction.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be pursued in respect of the instant complaint.	No Charge

54	Assault	NB	The complainant, NB, a fisherman of Pedro Cays, alleges that on Wednesday, September 30, 2015, he was assaulted by a Constable who pushed him in his forehead and attempted to hit him in his head with a firearm. Later that same day, he encountered Chief Petty Officer of the JDF, who dragged him to the 'camp base', ordered him to lie down on hot concrete, placed a rope around his neck and used a piece of board to strike him in his forehead and all over his body before placing him in the lock-up. He was subsequently released from custody that same day by a Corporal who was passing by his cell. Having assessed the evidence available, the Commission concluded that the evidence does not reveal a prima facie case having a realistic prospect of conviction.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid in respect of this complaint. The Commission further recommends that logs/registers be instated and maintained at the Jamaica Defense Force Coastal Base at Pedro Cays, Kingston. Said logs should seek to capture details of varying occurrences including instances of arrest, detention and release of persons, prisoner complaints and medical situations.	No Charge
55	Assault	OS	The complainant, OS, alleges that on January 21, 2017, at about 6:30 a.m., he was at his home in Comfort Hall, Anchovy in St. James and military personnel arrived in search of his brother. During a search of his premises, an officer in plain clothes slapped him in the face whilst an officer known to him, Officer, punched him in the stomach and struck him on the forehead and shoulder with broomstick. On January 25, 2017, he was travelling in a taxi when the vehicle was signaled to stop by an officer in a marked service van. On exiting the taxi on the orders of Officer, an officer slapped him in the face. After arriving at the Anchovy Police Station, Officer punched and kicked him all over his body. He was charged for being in possession of an offensive weapon. Having assessed the evidence available, the Commission concludes that the evidence does not reveal a prima facie case having a realistic prospect of conviction.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be pursued against any member of the Security Forces in respect of the instant complaint.	No Charge
56	Assault	WW	The complainant, WW, alleges that on Wednesday, November 29, 2017, and whilst seated on a wall with several friends within the community of High Top in West Prospect, St. Catherine, Officer arrived on the scene in a motor vehicle. Said officer alighted with a gun in his hand and took hold of J by the collar of his shirt. After commenting that J was the wrong man, Officer replied that the complainant 'chat too much' and began hitting him with the firearm. The complainant was struck once in the forehead and suffered a bleeding wound as a result. Officer stopped the beating after a friend of the complainant asked him to do so. Thereafter, Officer drove away in his vehicle but first threatened the complainant, stating that he would send one of his 'blue bag police friends' to kill him and his friends. The complainant subsequently attended the Bog Walk Police Station where he made a report of the incident. Having assessed the evidence available, the Commission concludes that the evidence does not reveal a prima facie case having a realistic prospect of conviction.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid in respect of this complaint. The Commission also recommends that Constable be reminded of the need for members of the Jamaica Constabulary Force to make an immediate report to their supervisor where injury is caused by their use of force or firearms. It is open to the complainant to pursue civil remedies in respect of injuries he may have suffered as a result of the altercation with Constable in West Prospect, St. Catherine on November 29, 2017. 57	Fatality	Tevaughn Spalding	On June 18, 2021, the complainant and now deceased, Mr. Tavaughn Spaulding, was taken to the Kingston Public Hospital where he was pronounced dead by medical personnel. His mother, Ms. TK, indicated that she had contacted the police to have the deceased taken from the home and to the hospital after noticing that Tavaughn's eyes had rolled over whilst he was laying down. In a statement to the Commission after the deceased's passing, TK gave an indication that Tavaughn complained of pain to his head and all over his body after being beaten in the head by police personnel during an incident on Berwick Road, Kingston on April 4, 2021. Having assessed the evidence available, the Commission concludes that the evidence does not reveal a prima facie case having a realistic prospect of conviction.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid or disciplinary action be pursued against any member of the Security Forces in respect of the instant complaint. The Commission also recommends that the matter be referred to the Office of the Special Coroner for that office to decide whether an inquest ought to be held.	No Charge
58	Shooting Injury	DM	On Sunday, March 11, 2018 DM was in the Olympic Gardens community in close proximity to the police station when an argument ensued between two of his friends, J and N. He tried to part the fight and encouraged them to make peace however J then told him that he was going to get his gun. DM then left the area and went to his grandmother and Aunt's house. While he was there one of his friends then came to the house and threatened him saying they would hurt him and his family. He then left his house with nothing in his hands, and walked with his left hand in his shorts. He walked pass a parked Toyota hatchback car and then heard 'blow!' and then he saw two (2) police officers one dressed in blue and the other in red seam uniform. He states that he then saw the two (2) officers chasing people away from the scene, and he later blacked out. He gave another report to state that he had parted a fight earlier in the day and one of the men later threatened him with a gun and he went to retrieve his firearm that was silver and black in colour. While he was walking pass a Toyota motorcar with the gun in his hand he was shot by a police officer. He stated that at no time did he point the firearm at the police. He lost consciousness after being shot, but he was assisted to the Kingston Public Hospital (KPH) and received treatment.	It is hereby recommended that no criminal charges be laid, or disciplinary action be taken and the file closed.	No Charge
59	Shooting Injury	CP	On Monday, June 4, 2012, the complainant CP was a passenger inside a 'robot' taxi on his way to Kingston. Whilst in the taxi, the driver was stopped by the police who used their service vehicle to block the path of the taxi. Upon being signalled to stop, the taxi driver complied with the police officer's instructions. CP indicated that the occupants in the front of the vehicle were instructed to exit the vehicle by the police, and the driver of the vehicle and the front passenger exited the vehicle. He then saw when the front passenger pulled a firearm and fired gunshots in the direction of the police. He heard several loud explosions sounding like gunshots and then he felt a burning sensation to his upper left arm and jumped from the vehicle. He then ran towards bushes nearby and then felt a similar burning sensation to his left thigh. He ran from the scene until he reached the sea and ran along the beach. CP used pieces of his clothing to bandage his injuries, however he lost those pieces along with a pair viction. having a realistic prospect of conviction.sSION advises that it is open to the complainant to seek remedies for the recovery of his destroyed visor during this exercise. 60	Shooting Injury	WW	On August 22, 2017 the complainant, WW, was playing football sometime after 10am with some other men on the football field at the St. Andrew Primary School. While they were playing football he saw a group of men run pass them heading towards the perimeter wall of the school. He states that a few moments later he saw officers, some of whom he recognised, open fire at the men who were running. He then felt something sting him on his right ankle. One of the officers ran over to him and pointed their rifles at him and started to ask him "Weh unnuh a run go?!" Someone from the community told the officers that he was innocent as he was playing football and urged them to take WW to the hospital. The police officers went to a back area of the field and returned to where he was with a gun and tried to force him to hold the gun in his hand. They began to wrestle and when they managed to put the gun in his hands they attempted to get the persons on the scene to leave the area and a unit was called in. He states that he was thrown into the vehicle and taken to the hospital for treatment.	It is hereby recommended that no criminal charges be laid, or disciplinary action taken and the file closed. 61	Shooting Injury	OF	On Thursday, October 5, 2017 the complainant OF was riding his bicycle along Hannah Street when he saw a group of boys known to him before as being involved in criminal organisations. He then saw a white motor car drive along the roadway and the driver told him to get off the bicycle while pointing a firearm at him. He dropped the bicycle and ran off. He then saw when the driver of the motorcar opened fire at him while he was running, and the boys he had earlier seen ran in his direction and also opened fire at him. The boys then engaged the man, whom he recognised to be a police, in a shootout. While running he felt a stinging sensation to his back and fell to the ground. He realised he was shot and injured and was assisted to his house. While there members of the police force entered his home and asked him about a firearm, and he denied having one. The police also beat him all over his body as they asked about a gun. They later handcuffed him and took him to the Kingston Public Hospital (KPH) where he was treated. He was later arrested and charged for Shooting with Intent, Illegal Possession of Firearm and Illegal Possession of Ammunition. 64	Shooting Injury	TK	On Monday, October 18, 2021 the complainant, TK was the passenger in a black Toyota Mark X motorcar being driven by a male she had only met the day before whilst staying at a guesthouse with her friend. She went on the road with the driver in the hopes of buying some food to take back to the guesthouse. Whilst driving to get food several of the places they tried were closed, and upon trying to get food at the final place they were signalled by the police however the driver did not stop the vehicle but he drove through several communities seemingly to avoid the police. She began to enquire of the driver if he had anything illegal in the vehicle and he advised her that he did not. The driver continued to evade the police until he drove to a community where there was a dead-end road. The driver then sought to reverse the vehicle to get out of the roadway. She told him that it was not wise as the police were directly behind them and they would crash. The driver continued to reverse and whilst making enquires of him she felt her ears ringing as if something had ruptured and then saw blood spray from her face and spewed onto her body and the rest of the car. The driver of the Mark X was then removed from the vehicle by the police and following a heated complaint made by TK to the police, she was taken to the University Hospital of the West Indies (UHWI) where she received treatment.
