The Commission hereby recommends that disciplinary action be taken against Correctional Officer 1 on account of his use of excessive baton force upon the person of the complainant on May 3, 2019.	Disciplinary Action
18	Fatal Shooting	Kavanaugh Plummer	Kavanaugh Plummer was shot and killed by the police on October 17, 2021 on the compound of the Pathways International Church at 141 Albion Road where, on evidence, he unlawfully wounded CJ and PB on the instructions of Dr. Kevin Smith. In furtherance of instructions given by Dr. Smith, Plummer attempted to attack the police with a knife, expressing his intention to cause their death when he was struck down by bullets from M16 rifles. Having investigated the matter exhaustively, the Commission has found that there is no evidence to negative the police claim to self-defence.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid nor disciplinary action be taken in respect of this fatality. The Commission further recommends that this fatality be referred to the Office of the Special Coroner for a determination as to whether or not an inquest ought to be held.	No Charge

19	Attempting to Pervert the Course of Justice	AE o.b.o. SO	The complainant is alleging that on February 22, 2012 or February 23, 2012, she was forced by Woman Detective Corporal and Woman Corporal of the St. Ann Division of the Centre for the Investigation of Sexual Offences and Child Abuse to give statement(s) implicating a policeman, of committing an offence contrary to Section 10 of the Sexual Offences Act . Having investigated the matter and found that there might have been an irregularity in the procedure employed by the concerned officers in the taking of parts or the whole statement in the absence of the complainant's mother, but having considered that the matter was dealt with by the Director of Public Prosecutions, the Commission recommends that no criminal charges be laid nor disciplinary action be taken.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid nor disciplinary action be taken in respect of this complaint.	No Charge
20	Assault	MJ	The complainant, MJ alleges that on June 15, 2019, unjustified and unlawful force was used against his person by Constable at the Falmouth Police Station, which caused him to sustain an injury on the left side of his face. Having assessed the matter, it was found that the prospects of conviction are slim.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid nor disciplinary action be taken in respect of this complaint. The Commission further recommends that steps be taken to facilitate mediation of this matter between the complainant and Constable.	No Charge
21	Neglect of Duty	DM	The complainant, DM alleges that on September 3, 2018, he attempted to take his life whilst in solitary confinement in Cell 6 of the Security Block at the Tower Street Adult Correctional Centre. His attempt was due to the frustration he experienced after being beaten by Correctional Officer on or about August 31, 2018 because he was suspected of being in possession of a cellular phone. After the battery, he yielded up a cellular phone and was placed in solitary confinement where he became depressed due to his treatment. Having investigated the matter, it was found that the complainant's attempt on his life was directly as a result of an unjustified assault by Correctional Officer who was not cogently identified.	The Commission hereby recommends that no criminal charges be laid nor disciplinary action be taken against any specified official of the Department of Corrections in respect of this complaint. The Commission further recommends that consideration be given by the Department of Corrections to re-training correctional officers generally as to prisoners' fundamental rights and freedoms, and the circumstances in which it is lawful for force to be used against prisoners in their custody and care.	No Charge
22	Discharge of Firearm	AO	The complainant, AO alleges that on the morning of January 10, 2017, police officers unlawfully discharged their firearms in the vicinity of the Pembroke Hall High School, Kingston 20, Saint Andrew.
