Dear Honourable Speaker, Deputy Speaker, Honourable President and Clerk to the Houses:

Re: Submission of ADDENDUM to Report of Investigation – Investigation Conducted into the Statutory Declarations submitted by The Most Honourable Mr. Andrew Holness, Prime Minister, for the years 2019-2022, in respect of concerns that he owns assets disproportionate to his lawful earnings, and that he made false statements in his Statutory Declarations, by way of omissions, contrary to law

I write with reference to the above-captioned Investigation Report (the Report), copies of which were formally submitted to you on Thursday, September 5, 2024, by the Integrity Commission, for tabling in the Houses of Parliament.

Acting in furtherance of the directions of the Commission and its Director of Investigation, I now hereby submit to you an Addendum to the Report and would respectfully request that same be formally tabled together with the Report.

The Addendum embodies a substantiating Six (6) Page Third Party Witness Statement that is germane to the Report. Kindly note that the Statement was submitted to the Commission on Friday, September 6, 2024, at 2:46pm, following the Commission's submission of the Report to Parliament on Thursday, September 5, 2024.

The Addendum is not meant to alter, in any respect, the findings, conclusions or recommendations that are in the Report.

In closing, we ask that you take special note that the subject of the referenced Addendum is the Most Hon. Prime Minister of Jamaica, whose wife is the Hon. Speaker of the House of Representatives. In consequence, and in the interest of good governance, the Hon. Speaker may deem it appropriate to recuse herself from the Parliamentary processes that are and will be associated with this matter. It is for this reason that this letter is also addressed directly to the Deputy Speaker and the Clerk to the Houses.

Please be advised accordingly.

Respectfully yours,

Greg Christie
Executive Director for and on behalf of the Integrity Commission
