MEMORANDUM OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

The holding of local government elections at the same time as a general election, in instances where the timing for each respective election, in keeping with legal requirements, falls within one hundred and twenty days of the other, is envisaged to result in significant cost-savings to Jamaica, as well as administrative convenience.
A decision has therefore been taken to amend the Representation of the People Act in order to facilitate the holding of those elections jointly. A decision has also been taken to –

(a) provide for the methods of immersion of digits in electoral ink to include spraying electoral ink on the digit, or such other methods as may be prescribed; and

(b) provide for agents to be appointed to represent political parties, rather than candidates, in circumstances where those candidates represent political parties.

This Bill seeks to give effect to those decisions.

Andrew Holness
Prime Minister
