

JAMAICA

No. 14 – 2017

I assent,

P. L. Allen

Governor-General.

23rd day of June 2017

AN ACT to Repeal the Criminal Justice (Plea Negotiations and Agreements) Act and make new provisions for a system of plea negotiations and plea agreements; and for connected matters.

[23rd day of June 2017]

BE IT ENACTED by The Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives of Jamaica, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Preliminary

1. This Act may be cited as the Plea Negotiations and Agreements Short title. Act, 2017.

Interpretation.2. In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires—

“agreement” means an agreement made under section 8;

“document” means, in addition to a document in writing, any thing or manner in which information of any description is recorded or stored;

“member of the victim’s immediate family” means—

(a) the victim’s—

(i) spouse, as defined by section 2(1)(d) of the Intestates’ Estates and Property Charges Act;

(ii) child, adopted child or stepchild;

(iii) brother, sister, stepbrother or stepsister;

(iv) parent or step parent; or

(v) grandparent; or

(b) any other person who the court determines to be of sufficient proximate relationship (whether by blood or otherwise) to be considered a member of the victim’s immediate family;

“negotiations” means negotiations under section 5;

“Plea Judge” means a Judge of the Supreme Court or a Judge of a Parish Court who participates at any given time in negotiating, bargaining and the administration of negotiations and agreements;

“prosecutor”, in relation to a case, means—

(a) the Director of Public Prosecutions;

(b) an attorney-at-law employed in the Office of the Director of Public Prosecutions;

(c) a Clerk of the Courts;

- (d) an attorney-at-law to whom the Director of Public Prosecutions has granted a fiat to prosecute the case; or
- (e) a person who has initiated a private prosecution of the case;

“victim” means a person against whom the offence concerned is committed or who suffers physical injury, or loss or damage to property, as a result of the commission of the offence concerned.

3.—(1) This Act applies to negotiations and an agreement in respect of an indictable offence or a summary offence. Application of Act.

(2) This Act does not affect the right of an accused person to plead guilty without entering into negotiations or agreements under this Act.

4. Except as expressly agreed by the Director of Public Prosecutions in an agreement, nothing in this Act affects the powers conferred upon the Director of Public Prosecutions under section 94 of the Constitution of Jamaica. DPP's powers not affected.

Negotiations

5.—(1) A prosecutor and an accused person, or where the accused person is represented by an attorney-at-law, a prosecutor and the attorney-at-law for the accused person, may engage in negotiations, at any time before trial, for the purpose of reaching an agreement in accordance with subsection (2), for the disposition of any charge against the accused person. Negotiations.

(2) An agreement under subsection (1) shall require that—

- (a) the accused person undertakes to—
 - (i) make a guilty plea to an offence which is disclosed on the allegations on which the charge against the accused person is based or the facts as agreed; and

- (ii) fulfil the accused person's other obligations, if any, specified in the agreement; and
- (b) a prosecutor agrees to fulfil the other obligations of the Crown specified in the agreement.

(3) Where a prosecutor, other than the Director of Public Prosecutions, agrees to withdraw the charges or to allow the accused person to plead to a lesser offence (not originally included) than that for which the accused person is charged, the prosecutor shall not conclude an agreement, unless the prosecutor first obtains the written authorization whether by electronic or other means of the Director of Public Prosecutions to conclude the agreement.

Representation
by attorney-at-law.

6.—(1) Where an accused person has retained an attorney-at-law, a prosecutor shall not engage in a negotiation directly with the accused person in the absence of his attorney-at-law.

(2) A prosecutor shall, at the earliest opportunity, inform an accused person of his right to representation by an attorney-at-law and his right to apply for legal aid under the Legal Aid Act in respect of the negotiation.

(3) Where an accused person cannot afford to retain an attorney-at-law—

- (a) if the accused person is charged with an offence for which the punishment is death, the Court shall assign an attorney-at-law for the accused person at the public expense; and
- (b) in any other case, the Court in its discretion may assign an attorney-at-law for the accused person.

(4) Where an accused person who has indicated that he wishes to be assigned an attorney-at-law is not assigned an attorney-at-law, the prosecutor shall not have any discussions directly with the accused person, unless the accused person waives in writing his right to be represented by an attorney-at-law.

Victim to be consulted.

7.—(1) A prosecutor may obtain the views of the victim or a member of the victim's immediate family before concluding negotiations.

(2) A prosecutor who arrives at a plea agreement with the accused person shall inform the victim of the substance and reasons for the agreement, unless compelling reasons, such as the likelihood of serious harm to the accused or to another person, requires otherwise.

(3) Where the victim has died or is incapacitated, the prosecutor may communicate with a member of the victim's immediate family.

(4) Where the victim is a child—

- (a) under the age of fourteen years, views may be obtained from one of his parents or, his guardian or, where the parents or guardian cannot be located, the Children's Advocate or his nominee;
- (b) who has attained the age of fourteen years but not attained the age of sixteen years, views may be obtained from the child and one of his parents or his guardian or, where the parents or guardian cannot be located, the Children's Advocate or his nominee; or
- (c) who has attained the age of sixteen years, views may be obtained from the child.

(5) The failure of the prosecutor to obtain the views of the victim or a member of the victim's immediate family before concluding negotiations or to inform the victim of the substance and reasons for the agreement does not invalidate the agreement.

Plea Agreements

8. An agreement which has been concluded—

- (a) shall, to the extent applicable, contain the information set out in Part A of the Schedule;
- (b) may be in the form set out in Part B of the Schedule; and
- (c) shall be in writing and be signed by—
 - (i) the prosecutor; and
 - (ii) the accused person, and the attorney-at-law for the accused person where applicable.

Plea agreements.

Part A. Schedule.

Part B.

Prosecutor to notify the Plea Judge of existence of agreement.

9.—(1) The prosecutor shall, in open court or, on a showing of good cause, in Chambers, inform the Plea Judge of the existence of the agreement—

- (a) before the accused person is required to plead; or
- (b) at any time after arraignment.

(2) The parties shall disclose the agreement in open court when the plea is offered, unless the Plea Judge for good cause allows the parties to disclose the agreement in camera.

(3) Where a proposed or executed agreement is being discussed, the accused, accompanied by his attorney-at-law, may attend hearings held in Chambers with the approval of the Plea Judge.

Plea Judge may accept or refuse to accept agreement.

10. Subject to this Act and any Rules of Court, the Plea Judge may accept an agreement or refuse to accept an agreement.

Matters for consideration of Plea Judge before accepting plea agreement.

11.—(1) The Plea Judge shall, before accepting an agreement, be satisfied that—

- (a) the plea is voluntary and did not result from force, threats or promises (other than promises in the agreement);
- (b) the accused understands the nature, substance and consequence of the agreement;
- (c) there is a factual basis upon which the agreement has been made; and
- (d) acceptance of the agreement would not be contrary to the interest of justice.

(2) Proceedings under subsection (1) shall be in open court unless the Plea Judge determines otherwise.

Proceedings to be recorded.

12. The proceedings during which the accused person enters a plea shall be recorded and entered on the record—

- (a) by a court reporter or by such electronic or other means as may be specified by Rules of Court; or

- (b) where there is no court reporter and no electronic or other means is specified by Rules of Court, by the Plea Judge.

13.—(1) Subsection (2) shall apply where the Plea Judge decides that— Refusal to accept agreement.

- (a) the offence for which the accused person is charged is not disclosed on the facts; or
- (b) there is no confirmation by the accused person of the agreement or the admissions contained in the agreement.

(2) The Plea Judge shall, in the circumstances described in subsection (1)—

- (a) refuse to accept the agreement;
- (b) inform the parties of the refusal to accept the agreement and the reasons for the decision; and
- (c) advise the accused person personally that the court is not required to follow the agreement and give the accused person an opportunity to withdraw the plea.

(3) The refusal to accept an agreement shall not operate as a bar to the conduct of subsequent negotiations and the conclusion of a subsequent agreement in respect of the same case.

14. Subject to section 24, if the Plea Judge accepts an agreement and there is a guilty plea, the record shall include— Record of guilty plea.

- (a) written representation made by the victim or any member of the victim's immediate family, where available;
- (b) a summary of the information on which the Plea Judge based his decisions under section 11; and
- (c) the contents of the agreement.

15. Where the Plea Judge accepts an agreement, the prosecutor may— Recommendations by prosecutor where Plea Judge accepts an agreement.

- (a) recommend that the Plea Judge dismiss other charges that are included on the indictment or the information;

- (b) recommend that a particular sentence be imposed; and
- (c) recommend, or agree not to oppose the accused person's request that a particular sentence or sentencing range is appropriate or that a particular provision of the sentencing guidelines issued by the Chief Justice, if any, or policy statement, or sentencing factor does or does not apply.

Withdrawal
agreement.

16.—(1) An accused who enters into an agreement shall be entitled to withdraw from that agreement—

- (a) before the Plea Judge accepts the agreement, for any reason or no reason; or
- (b) after the Plea Judge accepts the plea but before it imposes sentence, if—
 - (i) the Plea Judge does not accept the agreement; or
 - (ii) the accused person can show a fair and just reason for requesting the withdrawal.

(2) The prosecutor shall be entitled to withdraw from an agreement before sentence where—

- (a) the prosecutor is satisfied that he was—
 - (i) in the course of negotiations, misled by the accused person or by his attorney-at-law in some material respect; or
 - (ii) induced to conclude the agreement by conduct amounting to an obstruction or perversion of the course of justice; or
- (b) the accused person who offers to assist the prosecution fails to assist or is misleading with respect to the assistance being given or to be given.

(3) Where the accused person intends to withdraw from the agreement under subsection (1), the withdrawal shall be done in camera, before the matter is heard in open court.

17. Where the Plea Judge refuses to accept an agreement under section 13, or the accused withdraws from the agreement under section 16, and the case proceeds to trial, the matter shall be heard by any Judge, other than the Plea Judge who refused to accept the agreement or before whom an agreement was withdrawn.

Case to be heard by different Judge where agreement is refused or withdrawn.

Sentencing

18.—(1) The Plea Judge may accept or reject a recommendation on sentence from the prosecutor, the accused person or his attorney-at-law, whether before or after acceptance of an agreement.

Plea Judge may accept or reject recommendation on sentence.

(2) Where the Plea Judge accepts a recommendation on sentence, the sentence imposed shall take account of the time spent in custody by the accused person.

(3) Where the Plea Judge rejects a recommendation on sentence, the prosecutor, the accused person or the attorney-at-law for the accused person, may withdraw from the agreement.

(4) Where an offence is punishable by a prescribed minimum penalty, the Plea Judge may, notwithstanding any other provision to the contrary, impose sentence without regard to the prescribed minimum penalty, however, the Plea Judge shall give detailed reasons why the particular sentence is imposed.

(5) Where a particular sentence is outside of the sentence or sentencing range set out in the sentencing guidelines issued by the Chief Justice, if any, the Plea Judge shall give detailed reasons why the particular sentence is imposed.

19.—(1) A Plea Judge may impose a lesser sentence than the Plea Judge would otherwise impose on an accused person, having regard to the degree to which the accused person has assisted, or undertaken to assist, the Crown in the prevention, detection or investigation of, or in proceedings relating to, the offence concerned or any other offence, and having regard to the matters set out in subsection (2).

Power to reduce penalties for assistance provided to Crown.

(2) In deciding whether to impose a lesser sentence for an offence and the nature and extent of the sentence he imposes, the Plea Judge shall consider the following matters—

- (a) the significance and usefulness of the accused person's assistance to the Crown concerned, taking into consideration any evaluation by the Crown of the assistance rendered or undertaken to be rendered;
- (b) the truthfulness, completeness and reliability of any information or evidence provided by the accused person;
- (c) the nature and extent of the accused person's assistance or promised assistance;
- (d) the timeliness of the assistance or undertaking to assist;
- (e) any benefits that the accused person has gained or may gain by reason of the assistance or undertaking to assist;
- (f) whether the accused person will suffer harsher custodial conditions as a consequence of the assistance or undertaking to assist;
- (g) any injury suffered by the accused person or the accused person's family, or any danger or risk of injury to the accused person or the accused person's family, resulting from the assistance or undertaking to assist;
- (h) whether the assistance or promised assistance concerns the offence for which the accused person is being sentenced or an unrelated offence;
- (i) whether the accused person has agreed to compensate the victim; and
- (j) whether the accused person offers to plead guilty soon after he has been charged or at the earliest possible time after the investigator's file is completed.

(3) A Plea Judge that imposes a lesser sentence under this section on an accused person because the accused person has assisted, or undertaken to assist, shall—

- (a) indicate to the accused person and may make a record of the fact, that the lesser sentence is being imposed because the accused person has assisted, or undertaken to assist, the Crown, in the prevention, detection or investigation of, or in proceedings relating to, the offence concerned or any other offence; and
- (b) state the sentence that it would otherwise have imposed.

(4) Subsection (3) does not limit any requirement that a Plea Judge has, apart from that subsection, to record the reasons for his decisions.

(5) The failure of a Plea Judge to comply with the requirements of subsection (3) with respect to any sentence does not invalidate the sentence.

Post Sentence Negotiations and Agreements

20. A convicted person who is serving a sentence and wishes to assist the prosecutor may enter into post sentence negotiations and agreements with a view to a reduction in sentence or other benefit.

Post sentence negotiations and agreements.

21.—(1) A prosecutor may refer a sentence for review to the Plea Judge or court that entered the original sentence, if possible, if it is in the interest of justice to do so.

Review of sentence of convicted person.

(2) The Plea Judge may review a sentence under subsection (1) where—

- (a) the convicted person received a reduced sentence on an undertaking to assist under the Act but knowingly failed to give any assistance in accordance with the agreement, or misled the prosecutor;
- (b) the convicted person received a reduced sentence under an agreement, and has undertaken in a separate agreement to give further assistance; or

- (c) the convicted person did not receive a reduced sentence, but subsequently gave, or undertook in an agreement to give, assistance in connection with the investigation or prosecution of an offence.

(3) In reviewing a sentence under subsection (1), the Plea Judge or the court that entered the original sentence shall have regard to the extent and nature of the assistance given or offered and the period of the sentence that has been served.

(4) A person who has been convicted of an offence which is punishable by a prescribed minimum penalty may enter into post sentence negotiation if he did not plead guilty to the offence for which he was sentenced.

Assistance by accused person:
review of sentence.

22.—(1) This section applies if—

- (a) the Plea Judge has imposed a sentence on a person in respect of an offence; and
- (b) the person falls within subsection (2).

(2) A person falls within this subsection if—

- (a) the person receives a reduction in sentence as a result of his having offered under an agreement to give assistance to the prosecutor or investigator of an offence but he knowingly fails to any extent to give assistance in accordance with the agreement;
- (b) the person receives a reduction in sentence in consequence of his having offered in accordance with an agreement to give assistance to the prosecutor or investigator of an offence and, having given the assistance in accordance with the agreement, in accordance with another agreement gives or offers to give further assistance; or
- (c) the person receives a sentence which is not reduced but in accordance with an agreement he subsequently gives or offers to give assistance to the prosecutor or investigator of an offence.

(3) A prosecutor may, at any time, refer the case back to the Plea Judge before whom the sentence was imposed if—

- (a) the person is still serving his sentence; and
- (b) the prosecutor thinks it is in the interest of justice to do so.

(4) A case that is so referred under subsection (3) shall, if possible, be heard by the Plea Judge who passed the sentence to which the referral relates.

(5) If the Plea Judge is satisfied that a person who falls within subsection (2)(a) knowingly failed to give the assistance, the Plea Judge may substitute for the sentence to which the referral relates such greater sentence (not exceeding that which it would have passed but for the agreement to give assistance) as it thinks appropriate.

(6) In a case of a person who falls within subsection (2)(b) or (c) the Plea Judge may—

- (a) take into account the extent and nature of the assistance given or offered; and
- (b) substitute for the sentence to which the referral relates such lesser sentence as it thinks appropriate.

(7) Any part of the sentence to which the referral relates which the person has already served shall be taken into account in determining when a greater or lesser sentence imposed by subsection (5) or (6) has been served.

(8) A person in respect of whom a reference is made under this section or the prosecutor may, with the leave of the Court of Appeal, appeal to the Court of Appeal against the decision of the Plea Judge.

(9) A reduction in sentence is a sentence passed in accordance with subsection (6).

General

23.—(1) Evidence of the following matters is not, in any civil or criminal proceedings, admissible against the accused person who entered into the agreement or is a party to the negotiations— Admissibility.

- (a) a plea of guilty which was later withdrawn or any statement made in the course of any proceedings under this Act regarding the plea of guilty; or

- (b) subject to subsection (2), any statement made in the course of negotiations with the prosecutor which does not result in a plea of guilty or which results in a plea of guilty that is later withdrawn or rejected.

(2) The Plea Judge may admit a statement described in subsection (1)(b)—

- (a) in any proceeding in which another statement made during the same plea or negotiations has been introduced if, in fairness, the statements ought to be considered together; or
- (b) in a criminal proceeding for perjury or malicious falsehood, if the accused person made the statement under oath and with the attorney-at-law of the accused person present.

Sealing of records.

24. The Plea Judge may, upon application or in his discretion, as the case may be, order that the records of negotiations or an agreement be sealed, where the Plea Judge is satisfied that the sealing of the records is in the interest of the effective administration of justice.

Obligation for secrecy.

25.—(1) Every person having an official duty or being employed in the administration of this Act shall regard and deal with as secret and confidential all documents or information relating to an agreement before it is presented to the Court or after the records of the agreement are sealed by the Court.

(2) Every person referred to in subsection (1) having possession of or control over any documents or information referred to in subsection (1), who at any time communicates or attempts to communicate anything contained in such documents or any information to a person otherwise than in accordance with this Act or under a court order, commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction or on conviction on indictment in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months.

(3) A person to whom any document or information referred to in subsection (1) is communicated in accordance with this Act shall regard and deal with the document or information referred to in subsection (1) as secret and confidential.

(4) A person referred to in subsection (3) who communicates or attempts to communicate any document or information referred to in that subsection to a person, otherwise than for the purposes of this Act, commits an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction or on conviction on indictment in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding one million dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding twelve months.

(5) The obligation as to secrecy and confidentiality imposed by this section, in relation to documents, records or information obtained under this Act continues to apply to a person despite the person having ceased to be appointed under or employed in carrying out the provisions of this Act.

26. The Minister may, by order subject to affirmative resolution, amend the Schedule. Amendment of Schedule. Schedule.

27.—(1) The Minister may make regulations generally for the purpose of giving effect to this Act and the regulations. Regulations and Rules of Court.

(2) Rules of Court may be made dealing generally with matters of practice and procedure under this Act.

(3) Regulations made under subsection (1) shall be subject to affirmative resolution.

28. The Minister may, by order subject to affirmative resolution, amend the monetary penalties specified in this Act. Minister may amend monetary penalties.

29.—(1) This Act shall be reviewed, from time to time, by a committee of both Houses of Parliament appointed for that purpose. Review of Act.

(2) The first review shall be conducted not later than five years after the date of commencement of this Act.

30. Section 15 of the Legal Aid Act is amended by deleting the words “section 4 of the Criminal Justice (Plea Negotiations and Agreements) Act, 2005” and substituting therefor the words “section 6 of the Plea Negotiations and Agreements Act”. Amendment of Legal Aid Act.
