JAMAICA

AN ACT to Validate and confirm as lawful the imposition, variation and renewal of tax under the Licences on Trades and Business Act by an order made pursuant to section 3 of the Provisional Collection of Tax Act, the collection of the tax, in good faith, during the period commencing on the 30th day of December, 2015 and ending on the day of coming into operation of this Act; to indemnify the Government and persons acting on behalf of the Government from liability in relation to the imposition, variation and collection of tax; to amend the Licences on Trades and Business Act; and for connected matters.

WHEREAS section 3(1) of the Provisional Collection of Tax Act (hereinafter referred to as the “Act”) empowers the Minister responsible for finance to make an order (hereinafter referred to as a “provisional collection of tax order”) providing for the variation of any tax for the time being in force, for the renewal for a further period of any tax in force during the previous financial year or which was imposed for any limited period, or for the imposition of any tax:

AND WHEREAS section 3(1) of the Act provides further that, notwithstanding anything to the contrary, the provisions of a provisional collection of tax order shall, for the period limited by that section and subject to the provisions of the Act, have effect as if contained in an Act of Parliament:

AND WHEREAS section 3(3) of the Act provides that a provisional collection of tax order shall, subject to subsection (4) of that section, continue for a period of six months next following publication thereof in the Gazette unless the House of Representatives by Resolution authorizes the continuance in force of the order for an additional period of three months:

AND WHEREAS section 3(4) provides further that a provisional collection of tax order shall cease to have effect if it is not confirmed (with or without modification, by Resolution of the House of Representatives) within the next thirty days on which the House sits after the date of publication of the order in the Gazette, if Parliament is dissolved, or if an enactment comes into operation varying, renewing or imposing the tax:

AND WHEREAS section 4(2) of the Act provides that where an order under section 3(1) ceases to have effect before an enactment comes into operation confirming or modifying the provisions thereof, any money paid in pursuance of that order shall be repaid or made good and any deduction made in pursuance of that order shall be deemed to be an unauthorized deduction:

AND WHEREAS on the 31st day of March, 2015, the Minister responsible for finance made a provisional collection of tax order varying, renewing and imposing trade and business licence duties under the Licences on Trades and Business Act, cited as “The Provisional Collection of Tax (Licences on Trades and Business)
Order, 2015,” (hereinafter referred to as the “Order”):
AND WHEREAS the Order was confirmed by Resolution of the House of Representatives on the 6th day of October, 2015, and the continuance in force of the Order was authorized by Resolution of the House of Representatives made on the 13th day of October, 2015, for an additional period of three months:

AND WHEREAS the continuance in force of the Order ceased on the 30th day of December, 2015:

AND WHEREAS no permanent amendment in relation to the matters comprised in the Order was made to the Licences on Trades and Business Act:

AND WHEREAS the Government, and persons acting for or on behalf of the Government, in good faith, have been varying, imposing, assessing and collecting trade and business licence duties on the basis of the provisions of the Order after the cessation of the continuance in force of the Order:

AND WHEREAS it is desirable to validate and confirm as lawful the variation, imposition, assessment and collection of the trade and business licence duties, in good faith, during the period commencing on the 30th day of December, 2015, and ending on the day of the coming into operation of this Act, and to indemnify the Government and persons acting on behalf of the Government from liability in relation thereto:

[5th day of March 2018]

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED by The Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate and House of Representatives of Jamaica, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1. This Act may be cited as the Licences on Trades and Business (Validation, Indemnification and Amendment) Act, 2018, and shall be read and construed as one with the Licences on Trades and Business Act (hereinafter referred to as the “principal Act”) and all amendments thereto.
Validation and Indemnification

2.—(1) Notwithstanding the Provisional Collection of Tax Act and anything to the contrary in any other enactment, the variation, imposition, assessment and collection of the trade and business licence duties so varied and imposed under the Provisional Collection of Tax (Licences on Trades and Business) Order, 2015, after the cessation of the continuance in force thereof, by the Government, and persons acting on behalf of the Government, in good faith, during the period commencing on the 30th day of December, 2015, and ending on the day of the coming into operation of this Act, are declared to have been validly, properly and lawfully done to all intents and purposes and with effect as if duly authorized by law.

(2) Every person liable to be legally proceeded against on the ground that any of the acts referred to in subsection (1), though done in good faith was unauthorized, unlawfully done, or otherwise illegal or improper, for any such reason, are freed, acquitted, discharged and indemnified against The Queen’s Most Excellent Majesty, Her Heirs and Successors as well as against all persons, whatsoever, from such liability.

Amendment of Principal Act

3. Section 2 of the principal Act is amended by inserting in their correct alphabetical sequence the following definitions—

“‘retail licence’ means a trade and business licence taken out by a wholesale dealer or retailer in respect of his trade where it includes the retail sale of wine, beer or other malt liquor;

“trade and business licence” means a licence as a retailer and any other licence for a trade or business that is taken out under section 3 and delivered under section 7;”.

4. Section 3 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) in subsection (1), by deleting the words “Subject to subsection (1A),” and substituting therefor the words “Subject to subsection (2),”;
(b) by deleting subsections (2), (3) and (4); and
(c) by renumbering subsection (1A) as subsection (2).

5. Section 4(1) of the principal Act is amended by deleting the words “a licence” and substituting therefor the words “a trade and business licence”.

6. Section 5 of the principal Act is amended, by deleting—
(a) subsection (1) and substituting therefor the following—
“(1) For the purposes of this Act—
(a) wholesale dealers are classified in accordance with the wholesale dealer grades specified in Part I of the Third Schedule;
(b) retailers are classified in accordance with the retailer grades specified in Part II of the Third Schedule.”;

(b) from subsections (2) and (3) the words “retailer” and “retailer’s” wherever they appear and substituting therefor, in each case, the words “wholesale dealer or retailer” and “wholesaler dealer's or retailer's”, respectively;

(c) from subsections (4) and (5) the word “retailer” wherever it appears and substituting therefor in each case the words “wholesale dealer or retailer”;

(d) from subsection (6) the words “retailer or an applicant” and substituting therefor the words “wholesale dealer, retailer or an applicant”; and

(e) from subsection (7) the word “retailer” and substituting therefor the words “wholesale dealer or retailer”.

7. Section 7 of the principal Act is amended by—
(a) renumbering the section as section 7(1); and
(b) inserting next after subsection (1), as renumbered, the following as subsection (2)—

“(2) Subject to section 25(2), the licence referred to in subsection (1), including the certificate endorsed on the licence, shall be in the form set out in Part I of the Fourth Schedule.”.

8. The principal Act is amended by deleting section 23 and substituting therefor the following—

“Penalty for not taking out licence
First Schedule.

23.—(1) A person who carries on a trade or business mentioned in the First Schedule, without having within the prescribed time taken out the licence required under section 3 of this Act commits an offence and is liable on conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

(2) The payment of a fine under subsection (1), shall not in any manner prejudice, or affect any proceedings instituted for the recovery of the amount payable in respect of any such licence.”.

9. Section 25 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) in subsection (2), by deleting the words “to a penalty not exceeding four dollars” and substituting therefor the words “on conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars”; and

(b) by renumbering subsection (2), as subsection (3) and inserting next after subsection (1), the following as subsection (2)—

“(2) The retail licence referred to in subsection (1), including the certificates required under section 7 and this section to be endorsed on the retail licence, shall be in the form set out in Part II of the Fourth Schedule.”.
10. Section 27 of the principal Act is repealed.

11. Section 28 of the principal Act is amended by deleting subsection (2) and substituting therefor the following—

"(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars."

12. Section 29 of the principal Act is amended—

(a) by renumbering the section, as section 29(1);

(b) in subsection (1), as renumbered, by deleting from paragraph (e) all the words starting from the words "shall be liable" and ending with the words "on the premises" and substituting therefor the words "commits an offence and is liable on conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars."; and

(c) inserting next after subsection (1), as renumbered, the following as subsection (2)—

"(2) The person in whose name the licence is held and the person who is the actual keeper or manager of the premises referred to in subsection (1), shall each be liable to the penalty provided by this section and for any breach of this section committed by his employee on the premises."

13. The principal Act is amended by deleting section 30 and substituting therefor the following—

"Offences. 30.—(1) A person who, in any part of the premises where wine, beer, or other malt liquors, are sold under licence—

(a) is in a state of drunkenness or engages in disorderly conduct;"
(b) engages in any unlawful games or gaming;

(c) is found in any such premises, other than a shop, between the hours of midnight and six o’clock in the morning, unless such person is employed on the premises or has lawful business there, commits an offence, and is liable on conviction in a Parish Court to a fine not exceeding two hundred and fifty thousand dollars.

(2) For the purposes of this section—

(a) “licence” means a licence delivered under this Act or a licence issued under any other enactment to sell wine, beer, or other malt liquors;

(b) the burden of proving that a person is employed as described in subsection (1)(c) shall lie on that person.”.

14. The principal Act is amended by inserting next after section 37 the following as section 38—

"Amendment of schedules and monetary penalties.

38.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the Minister responsible for finance may, by order, amend any of the schedules to the Act and the monetary penalties imposed by this Act.

(2) An order made under subsection (1) shall be subject to affirmative resolution of the House of Representatives.”.
15. The principal Act is amended by deleting the First Schedule and substituting therefor the following—
