PART II—National Identification and Registration Authority

Establishment and Functions

5.—(1) There is established for the purposes of this Act, a body to be called the National Identification and Registration Authority, which shall be a body corporate to which section 28 of the Interpretation Act applies.

   (2) There shall be established in the Authority an office which shall be the General Register Office for keeping a register of all births and deaths in Jamaica.

   (3) The provisions of the Second Schedule shall have effect in relation to the Authority.

Second Schedule.

Functions of Authority.

6.—(1) The functions of the Authority shall be to—
   (a) administer the National Identification System as provided under this Act;
   (b) establish, maintain and operate the database;
   (c) establish and maintain an improved and modernized system of civil registration and keep public records through appropriate means;
   (d) develop appropriate systems and protocols for the security, secrecy and necessary safeguards for the protection and confidentiality of identity information and demographic information in the Database;
(e) develop policies, procedures and protocols for the collection, processing, use and sharing of information contained in the Database consistent with data protection best practices;

(f) provide information or advice, or make proposals, to the Minister on matters relating to the Authority;

(g) develop public education programmes, monitor and promote compliance with this Act and the regulations;

(h) perform such other functions as may be assigned to the Authority by the Minister by or under this Act or any other enactment.

(2) In performing the functions specified in subsection (1), the Authority may—

(a) institute measures for the promotion of compliance with this Act;

(b) design and develop systems and procedures which allow for ease and convenience in the enrolment of individuals;

(c) introduce cost recovery measures for services provided by or on behalf of the Authority;

(d) establish procedures and develop, implement and monitor plans and programmes relating to the administration of the National Identification System;

(e) conduct seminars and provide appropriate training programmes and consulting services and gather and disseminate information relating to the National Identification System; and

(f) do anything or enter into any arrangement which, in the opinion of the Authority, is necessary to ensure the proper performance of its functions.

(3) The Authority shall manage its human, material and financial resources in keeping with modern standards and practices of sound financial management and good corporate governance.
The National Identification and Registration Act, 2017

(4) The Authority may contract the services of one or more providers of goods or services to establish and maintain the Database and to perform any other functions.

(5) In the performance of its functions, the Authority shall have regard to the needs of persons with disabilities within the meaning of section 2 of the Disabilities Act.

(6) The Authority may, with the written approval of the Minister, delegate to any member, officer or agent the performance of such of its functions (other than the power to make regulations or the power of delegation) as it may, from time to time, consider to be necessary.

(7) A delegation of any function under subsection (6) is revocable by the Authority and the delegation shall not preclude the performance of that function by the Authority.

7.—(1) The Minister may, after consultation with the Chairman, give to the Authority, directions of a general character as to the policy to be followed by the Authority in the exercise and performance of its functions as appear to the Minister to be necessary in the public interest.

(2) The Authority shall give effect to the directions given by the Minister under subsection (1).

8.—(1) In the exercise of its functions, the Authority shall cooperate with other public bodies in the implementation of this Act.

(2) Public bodies shall accord to the Authority such assistance as may be necessary to ensure the proper discharge of the functions of the Authority.

Board of Management

9.—(1) For the purposes of this Act, there is established a Board of Management of the Authority.

(2) The First Schedule shall have effect in relation to the Board.

10.—(1) Subject to this Act, the Board is responsible for overseeing the general administration of the Authority.
(2) The Board shall—

(a) establish policies and procedures for—

(i) the creation, management, maintenance and operation of the National Identification System;

(ii) the enrolment of registrable individuals;

(iii) the generation and assignment of a National Identification Number to every newborn and every individual enrolled under this Act;

(iv) the issue of National Identification Cards to registered individuals over the age of six years;

(v) the harmonization and incorporation into the Database of information required to be collected by the Authority under this Act from other databases kept by public bodies;

(vi) the collation and reproduction of information obtained and required under this Act to be collated and reproduced as may be required, from time to time;

(vii) the preservation, protection and security of all information or data collected, obtained, maintained or stored in the Database;

(viii) the promotion of the use of the National Identification Number and the National Identification Card; and

(ix) on-going research on developments and best practices in identity management;

(b) ensure that the operations of the Authority are, where applicable, in conformity with—

(i) the Financial Administration and Audit Act and any Financial Instructions issued by the Financial Secretary under section 51 of that Act;
(ii) the Public Bodies Management and Accountability Act; and

(iii) any other law relevant to the management of public bodies;

(c) review, evaluate, approve and monitor the implementation by the Chief Executive Officer of its—

(i) corporate policies;

(ii) operational, strategic and other corporate plans; and

(iii) annual budget proposals and submissions;

(d) review, evaluate and approve the financial statements and major expenditure proposals of the Authority; and

(e) ensure, whether by way of meetings or otherwise, that the Minister and the Permanent Secretary are kept abreast of matters relating to the administration and management of the Authority, including any need for financial, human, technological and other resource requirements necessary for the achievement of performance targets.

(3) The Board may give directions to the Chief Executive Officer with regard to the management of the Authority.

(4) In the performance of its functions, the Board shall operate in a manner that maximizes the effective and efficient operation of the Authority.

(5) The Board—

(a) shall establish policies on—

(i) human resource management, including a code of conduct and a system of performance based evaluation;

(ii) financial management;

(iii) employee benefits;

(iv) property management; and

(v) enterprise risk management;
shall approve annual, quarterly and other reports of the Authority which are required by this or any other enactment to be submitted to the Minister or to Parliament;

(c) shall monitor the performance of the Authority in respect of its performance targets and service standards; and

(d) shall request and receive from the Chief Executive Officer, periodic reports and such special reports as the Board considers appropriate, in written or oral form, in respect of the management of the Authority and the Chief Executive Officer shall give effect to the request.

Administration of Authority

11.—(1) There shall be a Chief Executive Officer who shall be—

(a) responsible for the day-to-day administration and management of the Authority; and

(b) the Registrar-General of Births and Deaths in Jamaica.

(2) Subject to section 13(3), the Chief Executive Officer shall be appointed by the Board, after consultation with the Minister, at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Board.

(3) The Chief Executive Officer shall be a citizen of Jamaica who the Board considers to be a fit and proper individual for appointment.

(4) In determining whether an individual is fit and proper to be appointed as the Chief Executive Officer, regard shall be had as to whether the individual—

(a) has adequate academic qualifications and technical, managerial and leadership competencies and experience;

(b) is of good repute, having regard to his character, honesty and integrity;

(c) is not a bankrupt within the meaning of the Insolvency Act; and
(d) has any business association with any person who, in the opinion of the Board, is not of good repute having regard to his character, honesty and integrity.

(5) Where the Board is satisfied that any circumstance specified in subsection (6) exists in relation to the Chief Executive Officer, the Board may, after consultation with the Minister, terminate the appointment of the Chief Executive Officer.

(6) The circumstances referred to in subsection (5) are that the Chief Executive Officer—

(a) is suffering from a mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act, or becomes of unsound mind or is permanently unable to perform his functions by reason of ill health;

(b) becomes bankrupt within the meaning of the Insolvency Act;

(c) is convicted and sentenced to a term of imprisonment or to death;

(d) is convicted of an offence involving fraud, dishonesty or moral turpitude;

(e) fails to carry out any of the functions conferred or imposed on him by virtue of this Act;

(f) fails to fulfil contracted performance targets;

(g) engages in action or behaviour reasonably likely to bring the Authority into disrepute;

(h) is no longer a fit and proper person; or

(i) engages in action or behaviour which constitutes sufficient cause for removal.

(7) Before taking any action under this section, the Board shall in writing notify the Chief Executive Officer of the right to be heard on the matter of the proposed termination, within such time as may be specified in the notice.
(8) The Chief Executive Officer may, subject to the provisions of this Act, delegate to any person the performance of such of the Chief Executive Officer’s functions, other than the power of delegation, as the Chief Executive Officer may, from time to time, consider to be necessary.

(9) A delegation of any function under subsection (8) is revocable by the Chief Executive Officer and the delegation shall not preclude this performance of that function by the Chief Executive Officer.

12. The Chief Executive Officer shall be responsible for the efficient and effective management of the Authority and shall—

(a) plan, direct, supervise and coordinate the activities of the Authority;

(b) manage the assets and property of the Authority;

(c) ensure that performance targets are met;

(d) maintain systems to promote and support compliance with this Act;

(e) submit annual and other budgets for approval by the Board;

(f) submit strategic, corporate and other plans for approval by the Board;

(g) submit internal regulations and policies for approval by the Board;

(h) submit annual, quarterly and other reports for approval by the Board;

(i) ensure that the Board is kept abreast of matters relevant to the administration and management of the Authority;

(j) exercise the functions conferred upon the Registrar-General under the Registration Births and Deaths Act and any other enactment; and

(k) perform such other functions as may be assigned to him by the Board.
13.—(1) For the proper carrying out of this Act, the Board, on the advice of the Chief Executive Officer, and subject to subsection (3), may appoint and employ Deputy Chief Executive Officers, at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Board.

(2) Subject to subsection (3) and the approval of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer may appoint and employ to any office in the Authority, such other officers and employees, at such remuneration and on such terms and conditions as may be approved by the Board.

(3) Except with the prior approval of the Minister responsible for finance—

(a) no salary in excess of the prescribed rate shall be assigned to any officer; and

(b) no appointment shall be made to any office to which a salary in excess of the prescribed rate is assigned.

(4) For the purposes of subsection (3), the prescribed rate shall be such rate as the Minister responsible for the Public Service may prescribe, by order subject to affirmative resolution.

(5) The Governor-General may, subject to such conditions as he may impose, approve the appointment of any public officer in the service of the Government to any office within the Authority; and any officer so appointed shall while so employed, in relation to any pension, gratuity or other allowance and in relation to other rights as a public officer, be treated as continuing in the service of the government.

(6) Subject to subsection (7), the Chief Executive Officer shall consult with the Board in establishing the qualifications for the various offices within the Authority.

(7) The Deputy Chief Executive Officer shall be an individual who the Board considers to be a fit and proper individual for appointment.
(8) In determining whether an individual is fit and proper to be appointed as a Deputy Chief Executive Officer, regard shall be had as to whether the individual—

(a) has adequate academic qualifications and technical, managerial and leadership competencies and experience;

(b) is of good repute, having regard to his character, honesty and integrity;

(c) is not a bankrupt within the meaning of the Insolvency Act; and

(d) has any business association with any person who, in the opinion of the Board, is not of good repute having regard to his character, honesty and integrity.

(9) Where the Board is satisfied that any circumstance specified in subsection (10) exists in relation to a Deputy Chief Executive Officer, the Board may, after consultation with the Chief Executive Officer terminate the appointment of that Deputy Chief Executive Officer.

(10) The circumstances referred to in subsection (9) are that the Deputy Chief Executive Officer—

(a) is suffering from a mental disorder within the meaning of the Mental Health Act, becomes of unsound mind or permanently unable to perform his functions by reason of ill health;

(b) becomes bankrupt within the meaning of the Insolvency Act;

(c) is convicted and sentenced to a term of imprisonment or to death;

(d) is convicted of an offence involving fraud, dishonesty or moral turpitude;

(e) fails to carry out any of the functions conferred or imposed on him by virtue of this Act;

(f) fails to fulfill contracted performance targets;
(g) engages in action or behaviour reasonably likely to bring the Authority into disrepute;

(h) is no longer a fit and proper person; or

(i) engages in action or behaviour which constitutes sufficient cause for removal.

(11) Before taking any action under this section, the Board shall in writing notify the Deputy Chief Executive Officer of the right to be heard on the matter of the proposed termination, within such time as may be specified in the notice.

14. Every member of the Board and every person who is proposed to be appointed or employed to any office of the Authority shall, prior to and during their appointment or employment; be subject to such periodic security clearance and background check as may be prescribed in the regulations.

PART III—National Civil and Identification Database

15. The Authority shall establish, maintain and operate in accordance with this Act, a consolidated national databank to be known as the National Civil and Identification Database for the collection and collation of identity information and demographic information regarding registrable individuals.

16. The purposes of the Database are to—

(a) provide a convenient method for individuals to prove identity information about themselves to others who reasonably require proof of that information;

(b) provide a secure and reliable facility for ascertaining, recording, maintaining and preserving identity information and demographic information relating to individuals as is required to be entered into it;

(c) facilitate the generation and issuance of National Identification Cards and such other forms of identity documents, as required;
(d) enable the processing of information to facilitate the verification of identity information and authentication of the National Identification Number and National Identification Card;

(e) enable the generation of statistical information as may be required by the Statistical Institute of Jamaica established under the Statistics Act and the Planning Institute of Jamaica established under the Planning Institute of Jamaica Act; and

(f) enable the reproduction of identity information and demographic information in legible form as may be required from time to time.

17. The Authority may use the information in the Database solely for the following purposes—

(a) to enable the use of identity information as unique and unambiguous features of identifying registrable individuals;

(b) to enable the use of the information contained in the Database to generate and issue the National Identification Card with a National Identification Number to registrable individuals;

(c) for compiling and reporting statistical information derived from analysing the information stored in the Database;

(d) to provide a medium for the verification of the identity information and authentication of the National Identification Number and National Identification Card; and

(e) to facilitate the provision of a secure and reliable method for ascertaining, obtaining, maintaining and preserving information on registered individuals.

18. The Database shall be kept, maintained and operated otherwise than in a legible form, subject to its being capable of being converted into a legible form and being used to make a legible copy or reproduction of any entry in the Database.
19.—(1) No identity information or demographic information in the Database shall be altered except in the manner provided in this Act or the regulations.

(2) A registered individual—

(a) shall, in the case of any identity information of that individual; and

(b) may, in the case of any demographic information of that individual, apply to the Authority to correct the information in any case where, after enrolment, the information is found by the individual to be incomplete, incorrect, misleading or otherwise in need of updating.

(3) On receipt of an application under subsection (2), the Authority may, if it is satisfied as to the accuracy of the information so provided, make such alteration as may be required in the Database relating to the registered individual.

(4) The individual shall be advised by the action of the Authority to correct or update the information or its refusal to update the information and the reasons for the refusal.

(5) A registered individual to whom a National Identification Card has been issued shall notify the Authority of any errors on the face of the Card, of which the individual is aware.

(6) Every—

(a) application under subsection (2) shall be made; and

(b) notification under subsection (5) shall be given, within a reasonable time after the individual becomes aware of the circumstances requiring the application or notification, as the case may be, and the Authority shall deal with the matter promptly.

(7) Where an individual, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with subsection (5), the Authority may cancel the National Identification Card, and the provisions of section 34(2) shall apply to a proposed cancellation under this section.
PART IV—Enrolment

20.—(1) Every registrable individual shall apply to the Authority for enrolment in the Database.

(2) The Authority shall take such steps as may be necessary to enrol all registrable individuals in the Database.

(3) The Authority may collaborate with public and private sector entities as may be necessary to establish enrolment centres and to ensure ease of access by the registrable individuals to the enrolment centres.

(4) The form and manner of the application, the information to be collected and the procedures to be adopted for the conduct of enrolment shall be as specified in the regulations.

(5) The Authority shall, at the time of enrolment, inform the registrable individual of the following details in such manner as may be specified in the regulations, namely—

(a) the reason why the information is being collected;
(b) the purpose for which the information will be used;
(c) the fact that, and the manner in which, the information will be verified;
(d) the right of the individual to access the information in the future;
(e) the right to request the correction of inaccurate information registered in the Database;
(f) to whom and under what circumstances information included in the Database may be disclosed; and
(g) the right to appeal decisions taken by the Authority.

(6) The Authority shall take such steps as may be necessary to satisfy itself as to the accuracy of the identity information provided by a registrable individual.

(7) No identity information about a registrable individual shall be entered into the Database unless the information has been verified by the Authority.
(8) All information provided under this section, which constitutes registrable particulars that are required to be included in the Database by virtue of the provisions of the Third Schedule, shall be included in the Database.

(9) Subject to subsection (7), information provided under this section, which constitutes registrable particulars that may be included in the Database by virtue of the provisions of the Third Schedule, may be included in the Database if the Authority considers the inclusion appropriate having regard to the purposes of the Database in relation to the particular registrable individual.

(10) The Authority shall provide to each individual a copy of the information that was given to the Authority by the individual at the time of enrolment, in such form and manner as the Authority considers appropriate.

(11) Every person who refuses or fails, without reasonable excuse to apply to the Authority for enrolment in the Database in accordance with this section commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to the penalty specified in relation to that offence in the Fourth Schedule.

(12) A contravention of this section shall not form a part of the criminal record of the offender.

(13) The Authority may use any lawful means available to it to obtain any registrable particulars of a registrable individual that are required to be included in the Database if the registrable individual fails to provide the information to the Authority within the time specified by the Authority.

(14) A Parish Court before which a person is convicted of an offence under subsection (11) shall, instead of sentencing the person to imprisonment for the non-payment of a fine imposed in respect of the offence, deal with the person in any other way in which a Court may deal with an offender under section 3 of the Criminal Justice (Reform) Act (other punishment in lieu of imprisonment).
21.—(1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the Authority may cancel the enrolment of an individual where it is shown that—

(a) there was misrepresentation or concealment of identity information by the individual;

(b) the individual was already enrolled; or

(c) documents tendered in the verification and authentication process are proved to have been forged or otherwise fraudulent.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), where a registered individual is not eligible for enrolment, the Authority shall cancel the enrolment of the individual and any National Identification Number assigned to the individual or any National Identification Card issued to him.

(3) Where the Authority proposes to cancel the enrolment of an individual under this section, the Authority shall so inform the individual in writing of the proposed cancellation, stating the reason therefor and of the right of appeal conferred upon the individual by section 47.

(4) The Authority may, after satisfying itself that it is appropriate to do so, enroll the individual for whom the enrolment had previously been cancelled.

22. The National Identification Number or the National Identification Card shall not confer any right of citizenship or by itself be proof of the domicile of a registered individual.

PART V—National Identification Number

23. The Authority shall, after entering an individual's identity information and demographic information in the Database, assign to that individual a unique national identification number to be called the National Identification Number.

24.—(1) A National Identification Number shall be a random number that bears no relation to the attributes or identity of the individual to whom the National Identification Number is assigned.
(2) A National Identification Number that is assigned to an individual—
   (a) shall be assigned permanently to the individual; and
   (b) shall not be assigned or re-assigned to, or re-used by, any other individual during the lifetime, or after the death, of the individual.

(3) A National Identification Number shall provide no information in respect of a person other than that an entry in the Database has been made and that the entry has been given that number.

PART VI—National Identification Card

25.—(1) An individual is eligible for the issue of a National Identification Card if the Authority is satisfied that the individual has been enrolled in the Database.

(2) No fee shall be payable by a registered individual for the first issue, or any renewal, of a National Identification Card to the registered individual by the Authority.

26. Subject to sections 25(2) and 37(5), a National Identification Card may be renewed in such form and manner as may be prescribed and for the relevant period referred to in section 29(2).

27.—(1) A National Identification Card shall display the identity information pertaining to the individual to whom it has been issued as specified in the regulations.

(2) A National Identification Card, in the absence of evidence to the contrary, shall be prima facie proof of the particulars contained in it.

(3) The Authority shall determine the size, description, content and other physical features of a National Identification Card as may be specified in the regulations.

(4) An individual to whom a National Identification Card has been issued shall ensure the safety and preservation of the card.

28. A National Identification Card may be used by a registered individual as a means of proving the registered individual’s identity, as the individual may require.
29.—(1) A National Identification Card shall be valid for a period specified in subsection (2), unless it is sooner—

(a) cancelled under section 19(7), 21(2), 34(1), 35(1) or 37; or

(b) returned to the Authority under section 35(3), 36(1) or 36(4).

(2) The period referred to in subsection (1) is—

(a) in relation to a registered individual who is six years of age, or older but under eighteen years of age, five years commencing on the date of issuance of the National Identification Card;

(b) in relation to a registered individual who is eighteen years of age or older but under sixty years, ten years commencing on the date of issuance of the National Identification Card; and

(c) in relation to a registered individual who is sixty years of age or older, fifteen years commencing on the date of the issuance of the National Identification Card.

(3) A National Identification Card may be renewed for further periods as specified in subsection (2).

30. A National Identification Card remains the property of the Authority.

31. The Authority shall not grant a National Identification Card retrospectively.

32. A National Identification Card issued under this Act shall not be transferable to another person.

33. The Authority shall keep a record of every National Identification Card issued under this Act.
34.—(1) The Authority may cancel a National Identification Card if it is satisfied that—

(a) the National Identification Card was issued based on inaccurate or incomplete identity information;

(b) the National Identification Card was issued in error; or

(c) the National Identification Card needs to be re-issued due to a defect.

(2) Before cancelling a National Identification Card under subsection (1), the Authority shall notify the registered individual to whom it has been issued, in writing of the proposed cancellation, stating the reasons for the proposed cancellation and of the right of appeal conferred upon the registered individual by section 47.

(3) Where an individual to whom a National Identification Card has been issued is notified of the cancellation of the National Identification Card under subsection (1), the individual shall return the National Identification Card forthwith to the Authority.

(4) Where the Authority is satisfied that it is appropriate to do so having regard to the reason for which a previously issued National Identification Card was cancelled, the Authority shall issue a new National Identification Card to a registered individual whose National Identification Card has been cancelled.

(5) An individual who, without lawful excuse contravenes subsection (3) commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to the penalty specified in relation to that offence in the Fourth Schedule.

35.—(1) The Authority may cancel a National Identification Card if it is satisfied that—

(a) the application for the National Identification Card contained false or misleading information in a material particular;

(b) more than one National Identification Card has been issued to the same person;
there has been an unauthorized modification of the information in the Database in respect of the holder of the card;

(d) the Minister charged with responsibility under the Jamaican Nationality Act has deprived the individual of citizenship
under that Act;

(e) the Minister charged with responsibility under the Immigration Restriction (Commonwealth Citizens) Act has revoked leave to remain in the Island under that Act; or

(f) the Minister has caused a declaration of renunciation of citizenship of Jamaica under the Jamaican Nationality Act to be registered in relation to the individual.

(2) Before cancelling a National Identification Card under subsection (1), the Authority shall notify the registered individual in writing of the proposed cancellation, stating the reasons for the proposed cancellation and (except in the case of a cancellation under subsection (1)(e)) of the right of appeal conferred upon the registered individual by section 47.

(3) Where an individual is notified of the cancellation of the National Identification Card under this section, the individual shall return the National Identification Card forthwith to the Authority.

(4) A person who fails to return to the Authority a National Identification Card that has been cancelled under this section commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to the penalty specified in relation to that offence in the Fourth Schedule.

36.—(1) Where a person—

(a) finds a National Identification Card that had not been issued to that person by the Authority;

(b) comes into possession of a National Identification Card without the permission of the individual to whom it was issued or the Authority;
(c) regains possession of the original National Identification Card after reporting the Card as being lost or stolen and being issued a replacement card by the Authority; or

(d) comes into possession of a National Identification Card—
   (i) that has expired;
   (ii) that has been cancelled;
   (iii) in contravention of the requirements of this Act or any other enactment; or
   (iv) that is otherwise invalid, that person shall return the card to the Authority as soon as practicable.

(2) A person who, without lawful excuse contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and shall be liable on conviction to the penalty specified in relation to that offence in the Fourth Schedule.

(3) If the holder of a National Identification Card dies, the National Identification Card shall be returned to the Authority by the personal representative or other person having charge of the affairs, of the holder, as soon as is practicable, after the death of the holder.

(4) The holder of a National Identification Card shall return his National Identification Card to the Authority forthwith if the holder no longer falls within any of the following categories—

   (a) a citizen of Jamaica; or
   (b) an individual who is ordinarily resident in Jamaica.

37.—(1) An individual to whom a National Identification Card is issued shall, as soon as practicable, notify the Authority in the circumstances set out in subsection (2).

(2) The circumstances are where the individual has reasonable cause to suspect that the National Identification Card—

   (a) is lost;
   (b) has been stolen;
   (c) has been damaged;
   (d) has been tampered with; or
   (e) has been destroyed.
(3) After being notified of any of the circumstances set out in subsection (2) the Authority shall cancel the National Identification Card and inform the police.

(4) The Authority shall require the holder to make a declaration under the Voluntary Declarations Act setting out the circumstances of the loss, theft, damage, interference or destruction of the identity card.

(5) If satisfied as to any of the circumstances specified in subsection (2), the Authority shall replace the National Identification Card, and may impose such fee as may be prescribed in respect of the replacement.

Authentication and Verification

38.—(1) The Authority may authenticate the validity of National Identification Numbers and National Identification Cards, in such form and manner, subject to such conditions and on payment of such fees, as may be specified in the regulations.

(2) The Authority may verify identity information of a registered individual, in such form and manner, subject to such conditions and on payment of such fees, as may be specified in the regulations.

39.—(1) A requesting entity may apply in writing to the Authority requesting that the Authority verify identification and the Authority may grant the request but shall not disclose core biometric information of the individual.

(2) A requesting entity shall ensure that any identity information of an individual that was obtained through its access to the Database is only used for verification purposes.

(3) A requesting entity shall provide the individual submitting his identity information and demographic information to that requesting entity for verification, with the following details, namely—

(a) that the requesting entity may seek to verify the information submitted by the individual by using the verification services provided by the Authority; and

(b) the uses to which the information received through its access to the Database may be put by the requesting entity.
(4) A requesting entity that contravenes subsection (2) commits an offence and is liable to the penalty specified in relation to the offence in the Fourth Schedule.

40.—(1) The Authority shall maintain records of the access provided to a requesting entity for verification purposes in such manner and for such period as may be specified in the regulations.

(2) Every registered individual shall be entitled to obtain from the Authority, in such form and manner as may be specified in the regulations—

(a) the individual’s information contained in the Database; and

(b) a record of requests made to the Authority under subsection (1).

PART VII—Facilitation of Delivery of Goods or Services

41.—(1) A public body shall require that a registered individual submit the National Identification Number assigned to him or the National Identification Card issued to him to facilitate the delivery to him of goods or services provided by the public body; and the registered individual shall comply with the request.

(2) A private sector entity may require that a registered individual submit the National Identification Number assigned to him or the National Identification Card issued to him to facilitate the delivery to him of goods or services provided by the private sector entity.

(3) This section does not apply during a period of public disaster or public emergency as defined in section 20 of the Constitution of Jamaica or in any other situation that poses a threat to health or life.

PART VIII—Protection of Information

42.—(1) The Authority shall ensure the security and confidentiality of identity information and demographic information and authentication records of individuals.

(2) The Authority shall take all necessary measures to ensure that the information in the possession or control of the Authority, including information stored in the Database, is secured and protected against access, use or disclosure not permitted under this Act or the regulations, and against accidental or intentional destruction, loss or damage.

(3) Without prejudice to subsection (1), the Authority shall—

(a) adopt and implement appropriate technological and manual security measures;

(b) ensure identity information of registered individuals is classified so as to provide security protocols that are, in the opinion of the Authority, appropriate to each classification;

(c) ensure that the agencies, consultants, advisors or other individuals appointed to, or engaged by, the Authority to perform any of its functions under this Act, implement appropriate technical and organisational security measures; and

(d) ensure that the agreements or arrangements entered into with such agencies, consultants, advisors or other individuals, impose obligations equivalent to those imposed on the Authority under this Act, and require such agencies, consultants, advisors and other individuals to act only on instructions from the Authority.

Disclosure of Information

43.—(1) The Authority shall not disclose identity information stored in the Database about any individual except where the identity information is disclosed—

(a) pursuant to a request of the individual whose information is being disclosed;

(b) to facilitate the identification of the bodies of unknown deceased persons;

(c) to facilitate the finding or identification of missing persons;

(d) subject to subsection (2), pursuant to an order of the Court; or

(e) where the Act authorizes the disclosure.
(2) The Court may, on an ex parte application by the Authority to a Judge in Chambers, grant an order for disclosure of the identity information of an individual on the grounds that the disclosure is necessary—

(a) for the prevention or detection of a crime;
(b) in the interest of national security;
(c) where there is a public emergency; or
(d) to facilitate an investigation under the Proceeds of Crime Act.

(3) The Authority may disclose demographic information to enable the generation of statistical information as may be required by the Statistical Institute of Jamaica established under the Statistics Act and the Planning Institute of Jamaica established under the Planning Institute of Jamaica Act.

44.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), the identity information, collected under this Act may be disclosed only in accordance with the provisions of this Act and in such manner as may be specified in the regulations.

(2) Core biometric information that is collected or created under this Act shall not be disclosed by the Authority, except under a court order or with the authorisation of the registered individual.

45.—(1) Subject to subsection (2), where access to core biometric information in the Database is reasonably required for the purpose of a criminal investigation or criminal proceedings, an officer not below the rank of Senior Superintendent of Police may apply to the Supreme Court for an order authorizing the Authority to disclose the core biometric information to the officer.

(2) An application for an order under subsection (1) shall be made ex parte to a Judge in Chambers.

(3) A Judge shall not make the order under this section unless he is satisfied that—

(a) it is necessary in the interests of national security or for the investigation of a criminal offence;
The National Identification and Registration Act, 2017

(b) other investigative procedures—
   (i) have not been or are unlikely to be successful in attaining the information sought to be acquired;
   (ii) are too dangerous to adopt in the circumstances;
   (iii) having regard to the urgency of the case, are impracticable; or

(c) it would be in the best interest in the administration of justice to make the order.

(4) An application for an order under this section shall be in writing and be accompanied by an affidavit deponing to the following matters—
   (a) the name and rank of the police officer and the division to which the police officer is assigned;
   (b) the facts or allegations giving rise to the application;
   (c) such other information as is necessary for the Judge to make the order.

(5) Biometric information acquired by means of an order under this section shall be dealt with in accordance with section 4A and 4B of the Fingerprints Act.

PART IX—Appeal

46.—(1) There is established, for the purpose of hearing appeals from the decisions of the Authority, a tribunal to be called the Appeal Tribunal (hereinafter referred to as “the Tribunal”).

(2) The Fifth Schedule shall have effect in relation to the Tribunal.

47.—(1) A person who is aggrieved by a decision of the Authority in respect of a matter under this Act may appeal to the Tribunal by way of a notice of appeal in the prescribed form within twenty-eight days of the date of the communication of the decision to the person concerned or within such longer period as the Tribunal may, in any special circumstance, allow.

(2) The notice of appeal shall set out clearly the grounds of the appeal and shall be accompanied by copies of any document relevant to the appeal.
(3) A copy of the notice of appeal together with copies of any document shall be served on the Authority.

(4) The Tribunal shall, within seven days of the receipt of a notice of appeal under subsection (1), request the Authority to furnish, within seven days, a statement in writing setting out the reasons for its decision.

(5) The Tribunal may order that any document relating to the appeal which is in the possession of the Authority or the appellant be produced at the hearing of the appeal.

(6) The Tribunal shall cause all parties to the appeal to be informed—

(a) of the date of the hearing of the appeal;

(b) that they may appear themselves or by their representatives; and

(c) that they may summon witnesses in their cause.

(7) On hearing an appeal under this section, the Tribunal may—

(a) dismiss the appeal and confirm the decision of the Authority;

(b) allow the appeal and set aside the decision;

(c) vary the decision; or

(d) allow the appeal and direct that the matter be determined afresh by the Authority.

(8) The Tribunal shall forward a copy of its decision to the Authority and a copy to the appellant, together with a written statement of the reasons for its decision.

PART X—Offences and Penalties

48.—(1) An individual shall not—

(a) use a National Identification Card for impersonating or attempting to impersonate a registered individual; or

(b) allow or induce another person to use or attempt to use a National Identification Card to impersonate a registered individual.
(2) An individual shall not impersonate or attempt to impersonate another individual by providing false information.

(3) An individual who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable to the penalty specified in relation to the offence in the Fourth Schedule.

49.—(1) A person shall not collect or attempt to collect on behalf of the Authority identity information or demographic information when not authorized to do so.

(2) A person who contravenes subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable to the penalty specified in relation to the offence in the Fourth Schedule.

50.—(1) A person shall not wilfully provide false information to the Authority.

(2) A person shall not wilfully obstruct or impede the Authority in the exercise of the Authority's functions.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable to the penalty specified in relation to the offence in the Fourth Schedule.

51.—(1) Subject to this Act, a person shall not make, produce, manufacture, print, bind, design or distribute any document, purporting that the document is a National Identification Card.

(2) Subject to this Act, a person shall not use any equipment or apparatus to produce a document purporting that document to be a National Identification Card.

(3) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and is liable to the penalty specified in relation to the offence in the Fourth Schedule.

52.—(1) A person shall not, without lawful authority, intentionally—

(a) obtain, for himself or another person, access to the Database;
(b) modify the contents of the Database (whether or not the modification is, or is intended to be, permanent or temporary); or

(c) intercept, or cause to be intercepted, any function of the Database.

(2) A person shall not, without lawful authority, justification or excuse, intentionally cause, directly or indirectly—

(a) a degradation, failure, interruption or obstruction of the operation of any program or data comprised in the Database; or

(b) a denial of access to, or impairment of the function of, any program or data comprised in the Database.

(3) In this section—

(a) intercepting includes listening to or viewing, by use of technical means, or recording, a function of any program or data comprised in the Database, or acquiring the substance, meaning or purport of any such function;

(b) “data” and “program” have the meaning assigned to them, respectively, by the Cybercrimes Act;

(c) “access” shall be construed in accordance with the Cybercrimes Act, in the case of any part of the Database which comprises a computer, program or data; and

(d) as relates to the commission of an offence under this section, the acts or intent alleged to constitute the offence need not be directed at—

(i) any specifically identifiable program or data or type of program or data; or

(ii) any program or data held in a specifically identifiable computer.

(4) A person who contravenes this section commits an offence and is liable to the penalty specified in the Fourth Schedule in respect of the offence.
53.—(1) An individual who—

(a) provides false information or makes a false statement of a material nature with the intention of obstructing or misleading the Authority when—

(i) providing information for an entry to the Database;
(ii) making a modification to an entry to the Database;
(iii) making a confirmation of the content of an entry to the Database; or
(iv) obtaining the issue or re-issue of a National Identification Card;

(b) fraudulently obtains for the use of that individual, or for the use of another individual, a National Identification Card;

(c) knowingly enrolls or attempts to enrol more than once in the Database; or

(d) falsely alleges the loss or destruction of that individual’s National Identification Card and applies for a new card while in possession of a National Identification Card;

 commits an offence and shall be liable to the penalty specified in relation to the offence in the Fourth Schedule.

(2) For the purpose of this section, an individual provides false information if at the time of the provision of the information the individual—

(a) knew or believed the information to be false; or

(b) was reckless as to the veracity of the information.

54.—(1) A person commits an offence if the person—

(a) wilfully destroys or attempts to destroy a National Identification Card;

(b) tampers with or attempts to tamper with a National Identification Card;

(c) unlawfully deprives or dispossesses a holder of that holder’s National Identification Card;
The National Identification and Registration Act, 2017

(d) uses a National Identification Card other than the National Identification Card issued for that individual’s use;

(e) takes and keeps possession of a National Identification Card that was improperly obtained;

(f) is in possession of more than one National Identification Card that is intended to show the individual’s identity; or

(g) permits another person to use a National Identification Card issued to another individual.

(2) A person shall not without reasonable cause take or keep possession of a National Identification Card—

(a) which is counterfeit or which that person knows to be counterfeit;

(b) which that person knows has been improperly obtained, or

(c) that belongs to another person.

(3) For the purposes of this section, a National Identification Card is improperly obtained if false information was knowingly provided in relation to—

(a) the application for its issue; or

(b) an application for its modification to the person who issued it or effected the modification.

(4) A person who contravenes subsection (1) or (2) commits an offence and shall be liable to the penalty specified in respect of the offence in the Fourth Schedule.

PART XI—General

55.—(1) Every person having an official duty or being employed in the administration of this Act shall regard and deal with as secret and confidential, all documents relating to the functions of the Authority.

(2) Every person who had an official duty or was employed in the administration of this Act shall maintain, after such duty or employment is terminated, the secrecy and confidentiality of all documents relating to the functions of the Authority.
(3) Any person to whom information is communicated under this Act shall regard and deal with such information as secret and confidential, except to the extent otherwise provided in any other law.

(4) Every person referred to in subsection (1), (2) or (3) having possession of or control over any information, who at any time communicates or attempts to communicate any such information to any person, otherwise than for the purposes of this Act or to any person, other than an authorized officer of the Authority or person at the direction of the court, commits an offence.

(5) A person who commits an offence under subsection (4) is liable to the penalty specified in relation to the offence in the Fourth Schedule.

(6) No obligation as to secrecy, confidentiality or other restriction upon the disclosure of information imposed by any law or otherwise shall prevent the duly authorized officers of the Authority from disclosing information to the Chief Executive Officer for the purpose of assisting the Chief Executive Officer in the performance of his duties.

56.—(1) No civil or criminal action, suit or other proceedings for breach of confidentiality may be brought, nor any professional sanction for such breach may be taken against any person, who in good faith (under this Act or any other enactment) provides or transmits to the Authority information requested by the Authority or submits a report to the Authority.

(2) No suit or other proceedings may be brought or instituted personally against any officer of the Authority in respect of any lawful act done, or omission made, in good faith, in the course of carrying out this Act.

57.—(1) The Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, make regulations for the better carrying out of the objects and purposes of this Act and, in particular, but without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, may make regulations relating to—

(a) the forms to be used in connection with any application, notice, certificate or other writing under this Act;

(b) the procedures and practices to be followed by the Authority in the collection and verification of information required for the enrolment and registration of individuals;
(c) the procedures and processes for the data storage, data management, security protocols and technological safeguards for information stored in the Database;

(d) the procedure for the generation and issuance of the National Identification Number;

(e) procedures and processes for the manufacture, preparation and issue, surrender, cancellation, renewal and replacement of National Identification Cards;

(f) procedures for the correction and registration of changes to the identity information and demographic information of a registered individual and the entry of the changed information into the Database;

(g) prescribe fees for doing any act or providing any service for the purposes of this Act and prescribe the circumstances and way in which fees can be paid, refunded, waived or reduced;

(h) the registration and approval of and process for access to the Database;

(i) the preservation, custody and safekeeping of documents under this Act, including the archiving of the National Identification Numbers of deceased persons and other categories of individual in separate parts of the Database;

(j) any other matter required to be specified.

(2) Regulations made under subsection (1) shall be subject to affirmative resolution.

(3) The Minister may amend the Schedules to this Act (other than the Third Schedule and the custodial sentences set out in the Fourth Schedule) by order, subject to affirmative resolution.

58.—(1) Where a Constable has reasonable grounds for suspecting that a person is committing or has committed an offence under this Act and that evidence of the commission of the offence is to be found on any premises specified in the information, the constable may, for the purpose of carrying out an investigation in relation to the suspected offence, apply to a Justice of the Peace, for a warrant to search the premises and seize any document, cash or specified equipment found in the course of the search that, in the opinion of the Constable, is likely to be of substantial value to the investigation in respect of which the application is made.

(2) A search warrant issued under subsection (1) shall state—

(a) the purpose for which it is issued, including a reference to the offence that is being committed, has been committed, or is believed to have been committed;

(b) whether entry is authorized to be made at any time of the day or night or during specified hours of the day or night;

(c) a description of the kind of documents or specified equipment authorized to be seized; and

(d) whether cash is authorized to be seized.

(3) A constable shall not seize or make any copy of any document which is subject to legal professional privilege.

(4) A constable may, at the request of the person from whom a document is seized under this section, make copies or take extracts from the document.

(5) A person who hinders or obstructs a Constable or any person acting in aid of the Constable in the performance of his functions under this section commits an offence and is liable to the penalty specified in the Fourth Schedule.

(6) Where a person is convicted of an offence under this Act in relation to which any cash or specified equipment seized under this section is used in committing the offence, the Court may, on an application by the Director of Public Prosecutions order that the cash or specified equipment be forfeited to the Crown.

(7) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions proposes to apply to the Court for an order of forfeiture under subsection (6), the Director of Public Prosecutions shall, subject to subsection (9), notify in writing the owner of and any person (if known) having an interest in the cash or specified equipment that he proposes to apply for an order of forfeiture under subsection (6).
(8) The owner or other person notified under subsection (7) may appear before the Court at the hearing of the application and show cause why the cash or specified equipment should not be forfeited.

(9) Where the Director of Public Prosecutions is unable to ascertain the owner of or any person having an interest in any cash or specified equipment to which this section applies, the Director of Public Prosecutions shall not less than thirty days prior to the application, publish a notice in a daily newspaper in circulation throughout Jamaica, of the intention to apply to the Court for an order for forfeiture.

(10) Notice shall not be required under subsection (7) if the seizure of the cash or specified equipment was made in the presence of the owner or person having an interest in the cash or specified equipment.

(11) If, upon the application of a person prejudiced by an order made under this section, the Court is satisfied that it is just in the circumstances of the case to revoke the order, the Court may revoke the order upon such terms and conditions, if any, as it deems appropriate.

(12) An application to the Court under subsection (11) for the revocation of a forfeiture order shall be made within thirty days of the date of the making of the order or any longer period not exceeding six months, as the Court may allow.

(13) In this section, “specified equipment” means any vehicle, article, enclosure, container or other storage facility, device or apparatus.

59.—(1) This Act shall be reviewed, from time to time, by a committee of both Houses of Parliament appointed for the purpose.

(2) The first such review shall be conducted not later than eighteen months after the first appointed day.

60.—(1) The enactments specified in the first column of the Sixth Schedule are amended in the manner specified respectively in relation to them in the second column of the Sixth Schedule.

(2) Each amendment shall be construed as one with the enactment specified in relation to the amendment.
PART XII—Transitional Provisions

61. In this Part, "former department" means the General Register Office appointed under section 4 of the Registration (Births and Deaths) Act.

62.—(1) With effect from the appointed day, there shall be transferred to and vested in the Authority, any assets, rights and liabilities of the former department.

(2) The Authority shall, in relation to any assets, rights and liabilities so transferred and vested, have every right, power, privilege, immunity or duty which immediately before the appointed day was capable of being enjoyed or performed by the former department.

(3) All pending legal proceedings and claims which, before the appointed day, were brought by or against the former department shall be continued or enforced by or against the Authority in the same manner as they would have been continued or enforced before the appointed day.

63.—(1) Subject to the provisions of this section, on the appointed day, all individuals holding permanent appointments to offices under the former department, shall be deemed to have been transferred to the service of the Authority.

(2) All individuals who, at the appointed day, held permanent appointments to offices under the former department and are subsequently offered an appointment to an office in the Authority shall, from that day, be deemed to continue to hold, under the Authority, the like or similar respective offices or employment on the same or no less favourable terms as those held under the former department.

64. All individuals who, at the appointed day, held offices under the former department under a contractual arrangement, shall from that day be deemed to continue to hold, under the Authority, the like or similar respective offices or employment on the same or no less favourable terms as those they held, or similar offices, under the former department.
I. (1) The Board shall consist of twenty ex officio and appointed members.

(c) the individual is, in the opinion of the Minister—

(i) an individual of sound probity, and is able to exercise competence, diligence and sound judgment in fulfilling his functions;

(ii) an individual who possesses the knowledge skills and experience which are necessary for the intended functions to be carried out by that individual; and
The National Identification and Registration Act, 2017

(iii) an individual whose appointment will not raise an issue of conflict of interest or undue influence.

4.—(1) Subject to this Schedule, the appointment of every appointed member of the Board shall be evidenced by an instrument in writing.

(2) The instrument shall specify the period of office of the member, which shall not exceed three years.

(3) Every appointed member of the Board shall be eligible for re-appointment.

5. The Minister may appoint any individual to act temporarily in the place of any appointed member of the Board, in the case of the absence or inability to act of the member, being an individual who possesses similar qualifications to those required under paragraph 1(4) in respect of the appointed member.

6.—(1) The Minister shall appoint a Chairman and a Deputy Chairman from among the appointed members.

(2) Where the Chairman is unable or unavailable to act, the Deputy Chairman may, exercise the functions of the Chairman.

(3) The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board and, if at any meeting of the Board the Chairman is absent or unable to act, the Deputy Chairman shall exercise the functions of the Chairman, if the Deputy Chairman is present at the meeting and is able to so act.

(4) In the case of the Chairman and the Deputy Chairman being absent from or unable to act at any meeting, members of the Board present at the meeting and constituting a quorum shall elect from among themselves a member to act as Chairman in respect of that meeting.

7. If a member of the Board is, for whatever reason, unable to perform his functions as a member of the Board for a period in excess of three months, the Minister, may appoint a person to act in the place of the member, provided that the appointment shall be made in the manner and from among the individuals as would be required in the case of the substantive appointment.

8.—(1) On the application of any member, the Minister may grant leave of absence to the member.
(2) The Minister may direct a member to proceed on leave of absence if the member has been charged with an offence involving fraud, dishonesty or moral turpitude or of an offence listed in the Second Schedule to the Proceeds of Crime Act or an offence that is similar to any of those offences in another jurisdiction.

Resignation.

9.—(1) Any member other than the Chairman, may, at any time, resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Governor-General and transmitted through the Chairman and from the date of receipt by the Governor-General of the instrument, the member shall cease to be a member.

(2) The Chairman may, at any time, resign his office, by instrument in writing addressed to the Governor-General and transmitted through the Minister and the resignation shall take effect as from the date of receipt by the Governor-General of the instrument.

Revocation of appointment.

10. The Governor-General on the advice of the Prime Minister, after consultation with the Leader of the Opposition may revoke the appointment of any member if the member—

(f) fails to attend three consecutive meetings of the Board, or any of its committees, without reasonable excuse or explanation; or

(g) engages in such activities as are reasonably considered prejudicial to the interest of the Authority.

Filling of vacancies.

11. If a vacancy occurs in the membership of the Board, the vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of another member who shall, subject to this Schedule, hold office for the remainder of the period for which the previous member was appointed.
12. The names of the members of the Board as first constituted and every change in the membership of the Board shall be published in the Gazette.

13.—(1) The Board shall meet at such intervals as may be necessary or expedient for the transaction of business; and the meetings shall be held at the places and times and on the days as the Board may determine.

(2) The Chairman—

(a) may call a special meeting of the Board at any time; and

(b) shall call a special meeting within seven days of the receipt of a written request for that purpose addressed to the Chairman by any three members of the Board.

(3) The quorum for meetings of the Board shall be seven persons taken from the appointed members.

(4) Decisions of the Board shall be by a majority of the appointed members present and voting, however, in addition to an original vote, the Chairman, Deputy Chairman or other member presiding at a meeting shall have an original and a casting vote in any case in which the voting is equal.

(5) The minutes of each meeting of the Board shall be kept in proper form and shall be confirmed by the Chairman as soon as practicable at a subsequent meeting.

(6) The validity of the proceedings of the Board shall not be affected by a vacancy among the members of the Board or a defect in the appointment of a member of the Board.

(7) Subject to this Schedule, the Board may regulate its own proceedings.

14.—(1) The Board may appoint committees for special purposes connected with the functions of the Board and which, in the opinion of the Board, would be better regulated and managed by means of committees.

(2) The number of members of a committee appointed under sub-paragraph (1), the terms of appointment of the members, the quorum of the committee and the areas within which the committees are to exercise authority shall be determined by the Board.

(3) Committees of the Board shall make recommendations to the full Board for its ratification and decision; and the decisions of a committee shall not be binding on the Board.
The National Identification and Registration
Act, 2017

(4) A committee shall not have the power to make rules.

15.—(1) The Board may, in its discretion, invite any person to attend any meeting of the Board for the purpose of assisting the Board in respect of any matter under its consideration.

(2) A person invited under sub-paragraph (1) may take part in the deliberations of the Board on that matter, but shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Board.

16.—(1) A member who is, in any way, directly or indirectly interested in a contract made or proposed to be made by the Board, in any other matter which falls to be considered by the Board, shall—

(a) as soon as possible after the relevant facts have come to his knowledge, disclose or cause to be disclosed the nature of his interest at a meeting of the Board; and

(b) not be present during the deliberation of the Board on the matter or take part in the decision of the Board in relation to the matter under discussion.

(2) The disclosure shall be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.

(3) The member shall not—

(a) in the case of a contract, take part in any deliberation or decision of the Board with respect to the contract; and

(b) in the case of any other matter, take part in any deliberation or decision of the Board with respect to the matter, if the Board decides that the interest in question might affect prejudicially the member’s consideration of the matter.

(4) A notice given by a member at a meeting of the Board to the effect that he is a member of a specific company, firm or other body and that he is to be regarded as interested in any contract which is to be made with the company, firm or body after the date of the notice shall, for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1), be a sufficient disclosure of his interest in relation to any contract so made.

(5) A member need not attend in person a meeting of the Board in order to make a disclosure which he is required to make under this paragraph, if he takes reasonable steps to ensure that the disclosure is made by notice in writing to the Board.
17.—(1) A member of the Board shall not be personally liable for any act or default of the Board done or omitted to be done in good faith in the course of the operations of the Board.

(2) Where a member of the Board is exempt from liability by reason only of this paragraph, the Board shall be liable to the extent that it would be if the member were a servant or agent of the Board.

18. There shall be paid to the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and other members of the Board such remuneration (whether by way of honorarium, salaries or fees) and such allowances, as the Minister responsible for the public service may determine.

19. Any summons, notice or other document required or authorized to be served upon the Board under this Act or any other enactment may, unless there is express provision to the contrary, be served by delivering the summons, notice or other document to the Chairman or Secretary of the Board, or by sending it by registered post addressed to the secretary of the Board at the principal office of the Authority.

20. The office of the Chairman of the Board, a member of the Board or a member of a committee of the Board shall not be a public office for the purpose of Chapter V of the Constitution of Jamaica.

SECOND SCHEDULE

National Identification and Registration Authority

Financial Provisions

1.—(1) The funds and resources of the Authority shall consist of—

(a) such sums as may, from time to time, be placed at the disposal of the Authority by Parliament; and

(b) all other sums and other property which may, in any manner, become vested in the Authority.

(2) The expenses of the Authority, including the remuneration of officers and employees, shall be paid out of the funds of the Authority.

2. All moneys of the Authority not immediately required to be expended for the purpose of meeting any of the obligations or discharging any of the functions of the Authority may be invested in such securities or other investment as may be approved, either specifically or generally, by the Minister responsible for finance; and the Authority may, with the approval of the Minister, sell any or all of the securities or other investment.

3.—(1) The Chief Executive Officer, under the direction of the Board, shall be responsible for the preparation, control and management of the capital and recurrent budgets of the Authority.

(2) The capital and recurrent budgets of the Authority shall be prepared in respect of periods of three years and funds shall be committed by the Minister for allocation to the Authority, in respect of those periods.

(3) The annual allocation of funds in respect of the capital and recurrent budgets of the Authority shall each take the form of a single sum committed for each financial year.

(4) The Chief Executive Officer, in consultation with the Deputy, Chief Executive Officers shall identify the capital and recurrent expenditure priorities of the Authority, from time to time, and allocate the available funds in accordance with the priorities.

4.—(1) The income of the Authority shall be exempt from income tax.

(2) The Authority shall be exempt from liability to stamp duty in respect of any instrument executed by it or on its behalf.
(3) The Authority shall be exempt from taxation under the Transfer Tax Act, on any transfer by or to the Authority of any property belonging to it or of any right or interest created in, over or otherwise with respect to the property.

(4) No customs duty or other similar impost (other than general consumption tax) shall be payable upon any article imported into Jamaica, or taken out of bond in Jamaica, by the Authority, and shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Customs to be required for the use of the Authority in the performance of its functions under this Act.

5.—(1) The Authority shall keep proper accounts and other records in relation to its business, and shall prepare annually, statements of account in a form satisfactory to the Minister, being a form which shall conform with established accounting principles and with the requirements of any enactment governing the accounts of public bodies.

(2) Notwithstanding the requirements of the Public Bodies Management and Accountability Act, the external audit of the accounts of the Authority shall be conducted by the Auditor-General.

(3) The members of the Board and the officers and employees of the Authority shall—

(a) grant to the auditor appointed under paragraph (2), access to all books or other documents, cash and securities of the Authority; and

(b) give to the auditor, upon request, all such information as may be within their knowledge in relation to the business of the Authority.

(4) The auditor’s fee and any expenses of the audit shall be paid by the Authority.

(5) The Auditor-General shall be entitled at all reasonable times to examine the accounts and other records of the Authority in relation to the business of the Authority.

6. The Authority shall, not later than the 30th day of November in each year, submit to the Minister responsible for finance and the Minister, for his approval a corporate plan, an operating plan, and estimates of revenue and expenditure, for the ensuing financial year.
7.—(1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the Authority may borrow such sums as may be required by it for meeting any of its obligations or discharging any of its functions.

(2) The power of the Authority to borrow shall, as to amount, as to the source of borrowing, and as to the terms on which the borrowing may be effected, be exercisable only with the approval of the Minister responsible for finance; and any approval given in any respects for the purposes of this subsection may be either general or limited to a particular borrowing or otherwise and may be either unconditional or subject to conditions.

8. Without prejudice to any other method of recovery, all debts due to the Authority may be recovered in the Parish Court as a civil debt, notwithstanding any limitation as to the amount recoverable under the Judicature (Parish Court) Act.

Returns and Reports

9. The Authority shall furnish the Minister with such returns, accounts and other information as he may require with respect to the activities of the Authority and afford him facilities for verifying the information in such manner and at such time as he may reasonably require.

Annual and other reports.

10.—(1) The Authority shall prepare in the prescribed form and submit to the Minister responsible for finance and the Minister a quarterly, half-yearly and an annual report in accordance with the Public Bodies Management and Accountability Act.

(2) A copy of the annual report and audited financial statements of the Authority, approved by the Board, shall be submitted, no later than four months after the end of each financial year, to the Minister, who shall cause the annual report and audited financial statements to be laid on the Table of the House of Representatives and of the Senate.

Seal and Execution of Documents

11.—(1) The seal of the Authority shall be—

(a) kept in the custody of the Chairman or the secretary of the Board; and

(b) authenticated by the signatures of the Chairman or any other member of the Authority authorized to act in that behalf by the Authority, and the secretary of the Board.
(2) All documents (other than those required by law to be under seal) made by, and all decisions of, the Authority may be signified under the hand of the Chairman or any member authorized to act in that behalf or the secretary of the Board.

FIFTH SCHEDULE
(Section 46)

The NIRA Appeal Tribunal

Constitution of Appeal Tribunal.

1. The Appeal Tribunal shall consist of two panels, each consisting of three individuals, with the Chairman being a retired Judge of the Supreme Court or Court of Appeal.

Ineligibility for appointment.

2.—(1) The following individuals shall not be eligible to be appointed members of the Appeal Tribunal, that is to say—

(a) a member of the House of Representatives or the Senate;

(b) a member of the Council of a Municipal Corporation within the meaning of the Local Government Act;
and

(c) an individual who is not a fit and proper person within the meaning of paragraph 3.

(2) An individual shall not be appointed to the Appeal Tribunal unless the individual has forwarded to the Minister a voluntary declaration declaring that he is not ineligible for appointment under paragraph 2 (1).

(3) An appointment made in contravention of this paragraph shall be void.

Meaning of fit and proper.

3. For the purposes of paragraph 2, an individual, whether in Jamaica or elsewhere, is fit and proper if—

(a) the individual—

(i) has not been convicted of an offence involving fraud, dishonesty or moral turpitude or of an offence listed in the Second Schedule to the Proceeds of Crime Act or an offence that is similar to any such offence in another jurisdiction;

(ii) is not an undischarged bankrupt; and

(iii) is in compliance with any tax and other statutory requirements imposed on the individual;

(b) the individual’s employment record or any other information does not give the Minister reasonable cause to believe that the individual carried out any act involving dishonesty or any act involving impropriety that will interfere with his ability to fulfill his functions;
and
(c) the individual is, in the opinion of the Minister—

(i) an individual of sound probity, and is able to exercise competence, diligence and sound judgment in fulfilling his functions;

(ii) an individual who possesses the knowledge, skills and experience which are necessary for the intended functions to be carried out by that individual; and

(iii) an individual whose appointment will not raise an issue of conflict of interest or undue influence.

4. The members of the Appeal Tribunal shall be appointed by the Minister by instrument in writing.

5. The Minister may appoint any individual to act temporarily in the place of any member of the Appeal Tribunal in the case of the absence or inability to act of such member in keeping with the composition of the Appeal Tribunal.

6.—(1) On the application of any member, the Chairman may grant leave of absence to the member.

(2) The Chairman may direct a member to proceed on leave of absence if the member has been charged of an offence involving fraud, dishonesty or moral turpitude or of an offence listed in the Second Schedule to the Proceeds of Crime Act or an offence that is similar to any such offence in another jurisdiction.

(3) The Minister may, on the application of the Chairman, grant to the Chairman leave of absence for any period not exceeding six months and may appoint another member to act as the Chairman during the period of leave of absence so granted.

7.—(1) The members of the Appeal Tribunal shall hold office for a period of three years.

(2) Every member of the Appeal Tribunal shall be eligible for re-appointment.

8.—(1) The Chairman may, at any time, resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister.

(2) The resignation shall take effect as from the date of receipt by the Minister of the instrument.

(3) A member other than the Chairman may, at any time, resign his office by instrument in writing addressed to the Minister and transmitted through the Chairman.
(4) From the date of the receipt by the Minister of such instrument, the member shall cease to be a member of the Appeal Tribunal.

9. The Minister may revoke the appointment of any member—

(a) is unable to discharge the functions of his office (whether arising from infirmity of body or mind or any other cause);

(b) is convicted and sentenced to a term of imprisonment or to death;

(c) becomes bankrupt or compounds with, or suspends payment to, his creditors;

(d) becomes disqualified for appointment by virtue of paragraph 2;

(e) fails to discharge the functions of his office in a competent manner;

(f) engages in such activities as are reasonably considered prejudicial to the interest of the Appeal Tribunal.

10. The names of the members of the Appeal Tribunal as first constituted and every change in the membership of the Appeal Tribunal shall be published in the Gazette.

11. There shall be paid to the Chairman, Deputy Chairman and other members of the Appeal Tribunal such remuneration (whether by way of honorarium, salaries or fees) and such allowances, as the Minister responsible for the public service may determine.

12. If any vacancy occurs in the membership of the Appeal Tribunal such vacancy shall be filled by the appointment of another member, however, the appointment shall be made in the same manner and from the same category of individuals as would be required in the case of the original appointment.

13. Subject to this Act, the Tribunal may regulate its own proceedings.

14. The office of Chairman, Deputy Chairman or, member of the Appeal Tribunal shall not be a public office for the purpose of Part V of the Constitution of Jamaica.
